COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

LYNN TURNER NAMED NEW SEC CHIEF ACCOUNTANT

Chairman Levitt today announced the appointment of Lynn Turner as the Commission's Chief Accountant. Mr. Turner, who succeeds Michael Sutton, will join the Commission on July 1, 1998.

Arthur Levitt said, "Lynn has worked at the SEC, as an auditor, as a standard setter, and most recently as the CFO of a high-tech company. He has sat on all four sides of the table, giving him a keen understanding of the various and sometimes competing needs and views of the participants in the financial reporting process. This unique background, combined with a zeal for fairness and transparency, will make Lynn an effective advocate for investors. I am pleased to welcome him back to the Commission."

"I am excited about the challenges of the new position and look forward to rejoining the SEC," said Lynn Turner. "I feel my experience in the private sector -- both as CFO of an international high-technology company and as a Coopers & Lybrand audit partner -- will enable me to forge strong relationships with all constituencies."

As Chief Accountant, Mr. Turner will manage a number of important accounting issues, including the development and coordination of international accounting standards and professional independence issues.

Since 1996, Mr. Turner has served as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Symbios, Inc., a Colorado-based manufacturer of semiconductors and storage systems. Prior to that he was a partner at Coopers & Lybrand, where he was designated as an SEC Consulting partner. He also was appointed as the National Practice Leader for the Coopers & Lybrand High Technology Audit Practice, with responsibility for more than 1,000 professionals. Mr. Turner has worked on various industry task forces, including the AICPA Task Force on Accounting for Software Revenue Recognition.

From 1989 to 1991, he served as a Professional Accounting Fellow at the Securities and Exchange Commission, where he focused on oversight of the professional standard setting practice. And from 1976 to 1989 Turner served in various auditor and management positions at Coopers & Lybrand.

Mr. Turner received his M.A. in Accounting from the University of Nebraska and his B.A. in Business Administration from Colorado State University. He is a member of the AICPA and the Financial Executives Institute. (Press Rel. 98-46)
