ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

JOSEPH JOHNSON BARRED

The Commission announced the entry of an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Joseph B. Johnson (Johnson), a resident of Van Meter, Iowa, who, prior to June 1995, was associated with a broker-dealer and an investment adviser registered with the Commission.

The Order contains findings that, on May 3, 1996, Johnson pled guilty to a one count criminal information which charged Johnson with mail fraud. The Order also makes findings that on August 1, 1996, Johnson was sentenced to six months in prison and two years probation and ordered to make restitution of $215,000 to investors by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa. In addition, the Order found that the criminal information upon which Johnson's criminal conviction was based stated that Johnson induced individuals to invest in purported business ventures, such as the recording and promotion of gospel music and the marketing of gold lockets, which, contrary to the representations made to investors, Johnson utilized for his own personal expenses or to make payments to other investors. In addition, the criminal information stated that on or about May 13, 1994, Johnson caused an envelope containing a notification of redemption of $12,000 in mutual fund shares to be sent via the mails from a mutual fund to an investor, the proceeds of which were then used by Johnson in the course of the scheme to defraud.

The Commission's Order bars Johnson from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or municipal securities dealer. (Rel. Nos. 34-39097; IA-1667)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST TERRY ONEIL CLIFFORD D/B/A DATASOURCE CONSULTING GROUP

The Commission announced that on September 17 it filed a complaint in U.S. District Court in Fort Worth, Texas, seeking a permanent injunction against Terry Oneil Clifford (Clifford), d/b/a DataSource Consulting Group. The Commission's complaint alleges that Clifford violated the antifraud provisions and the investment adviser registration provisions of the federal securities laws.

In its complaint, the Commission alleges that, from in or about October 1993 through August 1996, Clifford raised approximately $1.8 million, primarily through the fraudulent sale of promissory notes, to approximately 74 investors. The Commission further alleges that Clifford falsely stated to investors that all of their funds would be invested in start-up companies, mutual funds, stocks, and/or commodities. Instead, the complaint alleges the mutual funds did not exist and that Clifford used investor funds for undisclosed purposes including to make principal and interest payments to earlier investors. Additionally, the Commission alleges that Clifford expended a sizeable portion of investor funds for his personal expenses. [SEC v. Terry Oneil Clifford, d/b/a DataSource Consulting Group, H-97-0983, USDC, ND/TX, Fort Worth Division] (LR-15503)

UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

LITIGATION RELEASE NO. 15503 / September 19, 1997

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION v. TERRY ONEIL CLIFFORD, d/b/a DATASOURCE CONSULTING GROUP

H-97-0983, USDC, ND/TX (Fort Worth Division)

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") announced that on September 17, 1997, it filed a complaint in United States District Court in Fort Worth, Texas, seeking a permanent injunction against Terry Oneil Clifford ("Clifford"), d/b/a DataSource Consulting Group. In its complaint, the Commission alleges that, from in or about October 1993 through August 1996, Clifford raised approximately $1.8 million, primarily through the fraudulent sale of promissory notes, to approximately 74 investors. The Commission further alleges that Clifford falsely stated to investors that all of their funds would be invested in start-up companies, mutual funds, stocks, and/or commodities. Instead, the complaint alleges the mutual funds did not exist and that Clifford used investor funds for undisclosed purposes including to make principal and interest payments to earlier investors. Additionally, it is alleged that Clifford expended a sizeable portion of investor funds for his personal expenses. Finally, the Commission alleges that Clifford omitted to disclose material information regarding the terms of the investments in the start-up companies and Clifford's financial condition.

The Commission's complaint alleges that Clifford violated the anti-fraud provisions found in Sections 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder and Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act"). The complaint further alleges that Clifford violated the investment adviser registration provisions found in Section 203(a) of the Advisers Act.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, a stipulation and consent and proposed final judgment were also filed as to Clifford in which he agrees, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, and pending final approval by the Court, to be permanently enjoined from future violations of the above provisions of the federal securities laws. Further, Clifford agrees to disgorge $1,077,692.00, representing his gains from the conduct alleged in the complaint, plus pre-judgment interest thereon, provided that payment of all but $30,000 is waived based upon Clifford's demonstrated inability to pay. Although the complaint sought civil penalties against Clifford, the proposed final judgment does not impose civil penalties based upon Clifford's demonstrated inability to pay.
