Join your colleagues for a discussion of the competitive sourcing process including possible outcomes, how it may happen and what has to be done. Experienced librarians from a number of federal agencies will share their first-hand experience and guide librarians at agencies newly to begin the process. There will be opportunities for audience discussion and comments and the program will end with a question and answer session.

Panelists include librarians from a variety of federal agencies:

- Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ)
- Army Materiel Command
- Food and Drug Administration (FDA)
- NASA-Langley
- National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)
