

2010 SOUTHWEST CLUSTER CONFERENCE

MARCH 2-4, 2010

DALLAS, TEXAS

Project on Civic Reflection Client and Partner List

Since 1998, the Project on Civic Reflection (PCR) has been a key partner and resource center for many different civic groups and organizations who seek deeper reflection and engagement through humanities-based discussion. We support their reflective practice in the following ways:

- Train facilitators to lead civic reflection discussions
- Provide program resources, including collections of readings and discussion questions
- Lead model discussions
- Consult on program development
- Promote programs through our web site and newsletter
- Assist with data collection and case-making

The following is a complete list of organizations PCR has worked with since our founding—through partnerships, training, consultation, demonstration conversations, conferences and symposia, and seed grants. For more information, please visit us at www.civicleflection.org or call 219-464-6767.
