REALIGNMENT OF OVERSEAS SITES

References:

- a. DODI 4165.69, 6 April 2005, "Realignment of DoD Sites Overseas"
- b. CJCSI 2300.02 series, "Coordination of Overseas Force Structure Changes"

1. Purpose. This instruction provides Joint Staff guidance for overseas site realignment, residual value (RV), and payment-in-kind (PIK) actions in order to:

- a. Implement reference a.
- b. Maintain overseas sites and infrastructure to support force structure in accordance with the National Military Strategy.
- c. Ensure an integrated, coherent overseas infrastructure.

2. Cancellation. CJCSI 2300.03B, 20 November 2004, "Realignment of Overseas Sites," is canceled.

3. Applicability. This instruction applies to the Joint Staff and combatant commands.

4. Policy. Reference a establishes DOD policy and procedures for the nomination, coordination, announcement, and execution of overseas site realignments and RV and PIK actions. This instruction implements those policies and procedures as they apply to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and combatant commands.

5. Definitions. None.

6. Responsibilities

- a. The combatant commanders will:

(1) Review Service and other DOD component realignment, RV and PIK actions, and the recommendations of the theater subordinate commands.

(2) Forward proposed site realignment, RV and PIK actions to the Director of the Joint Staff with associated recommendations, keeping the initiating authority advised. Ensure force structure change in the site realignment submission is adequate (in accordance with reference b) to support host nation notification of the force structure change.

(3) Announce and execute SecDef/DepSecDef decisions, as appropriate.

(4) Submit reports to the Director of the Joint Staff as required by reference a.

b. The Director, Joint Staff, will:

(1) Review all combatant commander site realignment nominations and RV and PIK actions.

(2) Ensure coordination of the site realignment nominations and RV and PIK actions with relevant combatant commanders and Service Chiefs.

(3) Forward coordinated recommendations to the appropriate DOD authority.

(4) Forward notification to combatant commanders and Service Chiefs of DOD realignment, RV, and PIK decisions.

c. The Director for Logistics, Joint Staff, will:

(1) Serve as the Joint Staff lead for RV and PIK actions.

(2) Coordinate with Joint Staff/J-5 on realignment actions.

d. The Director for Strategic Plans and Policy, Joint Staff, will:

(1) Serve as the Joint Staff lead for realignment actions until the US government and host country agree on the realignment decision and the decision is formally announced. At that time, the lead for the action passes to Joint Staff/J-4.

(2) Coordinate with Joint Staff/J-4 on RV and PIK actions.

e. The Director for Force Structure, Resources, and Assessment, Joint Staff (DJ-8), will coordinate with Joint Staff/J-4/J-5 on all submitted actions in accordance with references a and b. DJ-8 will review the force structure change description within the combatant command site realignment submission to ensure information is adequate (in accordance with reference b) to support host nation notification of the force structure change at the same time the host nation is notified of site realignment.

7. Summary of Changes. This administrative update of CJCSI 2300.03 updates references, the Web site in paragraph 8, clarifies the responsibilities of the combatant commanders and DJ-8, and includes other minor administrative changes.

8. Releasability. This instruction is approved for public release; distribution is unlimited. DOD components (to include the combatant commands), other federal agencies, and the public may obtain copies of this instruction through the Internet from the CJCS Directives Home Page--
