[REDACTED] also an EL RUKN.

Source further advised that [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] of a faction of the BLACK
GANGSTERS STREET GANG in [REDACTED] Illinois, who operates in much the same manner as [REDACTED] selling drugs in [REDACTED]
Illinois and may be connected to the EL RUKNS.

Source stated that in addition to selling drugs, both black gangs are involved in other crimes such as retail theft and fencing of stolen property. Source also suspects that a [REDACTED] Illinois city police officer affords protection for the BLACK GANGSTERS and is frequently seen in the near vicinity of the dope houses.

Source advised the following "EL RUKNS" work with [REDACTED] in the cocaine operation:

Source also identified eight locations in [redacted] where narcotics are sold by gang members or associates.

On 6/14/85, AUSA FRANCES C. HULIN, CDI, Danville, Illinois expressed an interest in pursuing investigation at Federal level under task force concept with objective of prosecution under Title 21, USC, Section 801.

On 6/13-14/85, [redacted] and [redacted] DCI, Zone 21, were apprised of this matter and expressed an interest in pursuing investigation as joint investigation. DCI had developed similar information from sources indicating the above information was correct.

At the request of DCI on 7/26/85, FBI Springfield assisted DCI and other local authorities in the searching of seven [redacted] residences using local search warrants.

The searches resulted in the following local arrests by local authorities:

SI 12B-294

Seized pursuant to search warrants were approximately five ounces of cocaine, one ounce of heroin, small amounts of cannabis, three handguns and $1,050 U. S. Currency.

These searches were handled as a local matter to afford security to the anticipated TF effort in anticipation of developing cooperative subjects. It is pointed out that periodic raids have been conducted in past resulting in the re-establishment of drug operations from different locations with nominal effect. Thus, instant searches not anticipated to unduly alert subjects according to participating law enforcement officials.

On 7/15/85 SA [redacted] DEA, Chicago, Illinois advised their files contain no current information re suspects in this investigation. [redacted] advised that due to current manpower restrictions DEA would be unable to assist in the investigation at the present time.

On 8/7/85, SA [redacted] Chicago Division, was contacted re OCDE Task Force case CG 245B-147 entitled [redacted] ET AL; THE EL RUKN STREET GANG; OCDE." [redacted] advised subjects, suspects and associates in this case are not known to CG 245B-147. [redacted] advised that Title III coverage of telephone lines in the EL RUKN TEMPLE, Chicago, not yet in place.

NADDIS checks re suspects made and FBIHQ will be advised of results.

During the next 90 days, it is anticipated the following investigation will be conducted:

1. Continue investigation with DCI to fully identify subjects and suspects through development of informants and/or cooperative witnesses regarding EL RUKN operation.
2. Obtain toll call records from subjects' telephone records and analyze same re EL RUKN affiliation in Chicago and elsewhere.
3. Will consider use of consensual monitoring, pen registers and physical surveillances to identify extent of drug operation.
