

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Celebrate the ART of Conservation

The Junior Duck Stamp Conservation and Design Program is a dynamic, active, art and science program designed to teach wetlands habitat and waterfowl conservation to students in kindergarten through high school.