

International Conservation Quiz

1. What food makes up nearly all of the Panda's diet?
 - a. Bamboo
 - b. Grass
 - c. Fish
 - d. Mice
2. True or false: bats are mammals.
3. Do both male and female Asian or African elephants have tusks?
4. True or false: African Penguins are one of six penguin species found in Africa.
5. How many species are being threatened by global climate change?
 - a. 200
 - b. 5,000
 - c. More than 25,000
 - d. None
6. When was the Endangered Species Act established?
 - a. 1992
 - b. 1859
 - c. 1973
 - d. 2000
7. What is the most common threat to amphibian species?
 - a. Predation
 - b. Trade
 - c. Poaching
 - d. Fungus
8. True or false: China is one of the largest importers of illegal ivory.
9. True or false: Vultures, eagles, falcons, owls and hawks are all examples of Raptors.

10. How many miles can the Monarch Butterfly travel during a migration?
- a. 500
 - b. Over 2000
 - c. Less than 50
 - d. Monarchs do not migrate
11. What mammal will spend nearly all of its life in the water?
- a. Bats
 - b. Polar bears
 - c. Jaguars
 - d. Sea otters
12. True or false: All sea turtles have hard exterior shells.
13. True or false: The Antigua racer is an extremely poisonous species of snakes.
14. True or false: Only animals can be considered endangered.
15. Which of the following species is no longer considered endangered?
- a. Loggerhead Turtle
 - b. African Wild Dog
 - c. Bald eagle
 - d. African Elephant

