DEFENSE COMMISSARY AGENCY
1300 E Avenue, Fort Lee, Virginia 23801-1800

Diana P. Graff Director of Strategic Planning

Diana P. Graff is director of strategic planning for the Defense Commissary Agency, headquartered at Fort Lee, Va. She is responsible for anticipating and planning for the challenges presented by the external environment and for managing the agency's governance process that ensures corporate decisions are focused on investments that will move the agency toward its vision.

Ms. Graff assumed this position in October 2012 after serving as the director of requirements and strategic integration from 2011 to 2012. In that position, she oversaw the development of the enterprise business system, point of sale system and other defense business systems for DeCA. Additionally, Ms. Graff managed the Organizational Assessment Survey, Commissary Customer Service Survey and American Customer Satisfaction Index for the agency. She also served as the agency's deputy chief of staff from 2010 to 2011.

Ms. Graff previously held a variety of positions of increasing responsibility. From 2005 to 2010, she served as the director of internal audit, supervising all audit matters of an agency that employs more than 17,000 people and includes a headquarters, five areas and nearly 250 commissaries located in 13 countries around the world, with annual appropriated funds of about $1.4 billion and annual sales of about $6 billion.

Before joining DeCA, Ms. Graff was program director of the policy and audit support division for the U.S. Army Audit Agency.

Ms. Graff has been awarded the DeCA Meritorious Civilian Service Award and the Department of the Army Commander's Award for Civilian Service. She has also achieved the Army Auditor General Award and the Regional Auditor General Award.
