

DLA recruiters attended the Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) Corporate Gray Career Fair on March 16, 2012, at the Waterford Hotel in Springfield, VA. For more than ten years, the MOAA has hosted military friendly career fairs that bring thousands of job seekers and military friendly employers together. MOAA's goal is to create a smoother transition for those leaving the military service and to provide high quality candidates to potential employers.

