

DLA recruiters attended Michigan Works Seminars on February 21st at the Three Rivers and Kalamazoo offices. The intent of the seminars is to aide Michigan's unemployed with more tools to help them achieve success while searching for work in the government sector. The recruiters briefed attendees on the many career opportunities available with DLA. In addition, the attendees were provided specific directions for navigating the USAJOBS site.