

DLA recruiters attended the Women for Hire Career Fair on March 22, 2012, in Washington DC. These fairs enable talented women in all fields to meet directly with recruiters and hiring managers. Whether experienced professionals with several years of experience or a graduating college student, these one-day events are an ideal chance for women to launch or advance their career.