

Special Edition of the Personnel Employee Bulletin

April 17, 2012

FINANCIAL LITERACY EDUCATION

The month of April is recognized as National Financial Literacy Month and in accordance with the current Department of Defense (DoD) Financial Literacy Education Plan, DoD seeks to promote lifelong financial well-being by adopting the philosophy of financial literacy education and career-long retirement planning.

In recognition of Financial Literacy Month a complimentary webinar titled: “What’s your Retirement Number?” given by Tammy Flanagan, Senior Benefits Director for the National Institute of Transition Planning, Inc, will be given detailing the steps you can take now to help secure a comfortable retirement.

Join Tammy on April 19, 2012 at 2:00 PM EDT to learn:

- * How to set a retirement goal – what’s your number?
- * Will your CSRS or FERS retirement be enough?
- * How does Social Security fit into the picture?
- * Maximizing TSP options
- * How to protect the plan against “what if” situations

Register Now! <http://cpb.govexec-media.com/portal/wts/cemcfOaO-P-baT0Emiorrta-BzrNjc>

Remember, you also have access to a great learning tool in the Employee Benefits Information System (EBIS), eSeminars. To access EBIS and find more Financial Literacy information visit the DLA HR website at: <http://www.hr.dla.mil/resources/benefits/ebis/>.

This webinar is intended to provide the best possible information but is not an “official” government source.

To contact your servicing DLA Human Resources Services office, please reference the following link,
<http://www.hr.dla.mil/ContactUs/>