MEMORANDUM FOR Students of Military Police Advanced Leader Course

SUBJECT: Welcome Letter

1. On behalf of all of the Maneuver Support Center of Excellence Noncommissioned Officers Academy, I would like congratulate you on being selected to attend Military Police Advanced Leader Course at Fort Leonard Wood.
2. Your selection to attend this course is a testimony of your future potential for assuming greater responsibility. This professional military education course is designed to share your operational experience with your peers daily through daily small group instruction and facilitation.
3. The Army Learning Model (ALM) 2015 will be challenging, exciting, and meaningful. The course will leverage technology to provide credible, rigorous, and relevant training. Soldiers must strive to be continual learners that require students to effectively manage their time. The objective is to build and maintain confident and committed leadership techniques. The course will promote critical thinking, adaptability, and problem solving that will better prepare and equip you to train Soldiers of the MP Corps Regiment.
4. The Leaders of the course will enforce Army Standards! You will be expected to have a positive attitude, a professional appearance, and personal commitment to excellence in aligned with the Profession of Arms. I am committed to ensuring all students meet the established standards of the Individual Student Assessment Plan (ISAP). Students need to read the ISAP as well as the student guide located on the website. Students who are reserved in ATTRS are automatically reserved for billeting through Army lodging.
6. Congratulations on your selection to attend this course. This course will prove to be career enhancing as well as a tremendous learning experience. I encourage everyone to strive for excellence at all times. "NCOs Lead the Way"
