

B.J. Haasdijk

Chairman,

Equens

Mr. Haasdijk is chairman of the Board of Directors for Equens, the largest pan-European payment processor, established from a merger between Interpay Nederland and the German payment processor Transaktionsinstitut. He has been a member of Interpay's Executive Board since 1999. Under his management, Interpay developed itself from a shared services center into a leading international payment processor. He was involved in the further development of Interpay's highly innovative and efficient payment system. Previously, he was managing director of information technology at Delta Lloyd Insurance Group N.V. He has served as financial controller at RCA B.V. record company, and set up a management information system at Bouwfonds Nederlandse Gemeenten N.V. mortgage company.
