

CBRN WARRANT OFFICER BASIC COURSE (WOBC)

If you are scheduled to attend CBRN WOBC, you will receive a letter/email from the Officer Training Department with specific dates and times. The information below provides a general overview of the course and corresponding expectations.

Course Overview: CBRN WOBC is a 10-week course, which provides CBRN Warrant Officers the technical skills and knowledge to perform the duties and responsibilities required of battalion level battle staff CBRN officers. This instruction is both externally and internally directed and includes chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear operations, as well as combined Marine and Army operations. This course is conducted through the Marine CORPS with the Army oversight.

Each course normally consists of 10-30 students, typically: 15 Army officers and 15 Marine Officers.

The training days are typically 10-12 hours daily. Instruction is primarily classroom-based, either in large class room format, or in small-group discussion. Extensive emphasis is placed on group practical exercises, prior military experience and computer simulations.

Classes conduct physical training three days per week, as a minimum. It is extremely important to report for the course in shape. In the early morning of the first day of class, students will be weighed/taped to ensure compliance with the Army's Body Composition Standards IAW AR 600-9. Additionally, an Army Physical Fitness Test (APFT) will be administered within the first week of the class. The following 9 weeks will be conducted with the Marines at the Marine school house.

Reporting Procedures: All students will report to Post Billeting at Bldg 470 (see Billeting Instructions below). Once students have received their billeting, they will report to 84th Chemical Battalion staff duty (Bldg. #1704) 573-596-0131 ext. 6-6671. Your leave will stop when you sign in at the Battalion.

Day 1: All students must report to Alpha Company, 84th Chemical Battalion (Bldg. #890), Nord Hall, Classroom #23, 0430 hours, on the first day of class. Uniform is IPFU, winter or summer depending on the weather. Bring the following items with you for in-processing:
