

Fort Hood Training Capabilities Website

The Fort Hood Training Capabilities Website at <https://mdtt.hood.army.mil/capability/main.html> is a single online entry point for III Corps and Fort Hood's Live Virtual and Constructive (LVC) and Joint, Interagency, and Multinational (JIM) training capabilities. The site provides users with training resource descriptions, scheduling instructions, and resources information links to help match training requirements with Fort Hood's vast array of training resources. Fort Hood is one of the premier Army locations providing Soldiers with a wide variety of realistic maneuver areas and live-fire training ranges designed to support training at both the individual and collective levels. Visit the Fort Hood Training Capabilities Website today, and learn about training resources available to enhance your training mission.
