MILITARY POLICE is a professional-development bulletin designed to provide a forum for exchanging information and ideas within the Army law enforcement and investigation community. We include articles by and about officers, enlisted Soldiers, warrant officers, Department of the Army civilian employees, and others. Writers may discuss training, current operations and exercises, doctrine, equipment, history, personal viewpoints, or other areas of general interest to military police. Articles may share good ideas and lessons learned or explore better ways of doing things.

Articles should be concise, straightforward, and in the active voice. If they contain attributable information or quotations not referenced in the text, provide appropriate endnotes. Text length should not exceed 2,000 words (about 8 double-spaced pages). Shorter, after-action-type articles and reviews of books on military police topics are also welcome.

Include photographs (with captions) and/or line diagrams that illustrate information in the article. Please do not insert illustrations or photos in the text; instead, send each of them as a separate file. Do not embed photographs in Microsoft® PowerPoint or Word. If illustrations are in PowerPoint, avoid using excessive color and shading. Save digital images in a TIF or JPG format at a resolution no lower than 200 dpi. Images copied from a Web site must be accompanied by copyright permission.

Provide a short paragraph that summarizes the content of the article. Also include a short biography (full name, rank, current unit, job title, and education), your mailing address, a fax number, and a commercial daytime telephone number.

Articles submitted to MILITARY POLICE must include a statement from your local security office stating that the information contained in the article is unclassified, nonsensitive, and releaseable to the public. MILITARY POLICE is distributed to military units worldwide, is offered online at http://www.wood.army.mil/mpbulletin, and is available for sale by the Government Printing Office. As such, it is readily accessible to nongovernment and foreign individuals and organizations.

We cannot guarantee that we will publish all articles, photographs, or illustrations. They are accepted for publication only after thorough review. If we plan to use your article in an upcoming issue, we will notify you. Therefore, it is important to keep us informed of changes in your e-mail address or telephone number. All articles accepted for publication are subject to grammatical and structural changes as well as editing for style.

MILITARY POLICE is published biannually in March and September, and articles are due by 1 December and 1 June. Send submissions by e-mail to <leon.mdotmppb @conus.army.mil>, or send an electronic copy in Microsoft Word on a compact disk and a double-spaced hard copy of the manuscript to MILITARY POLICE Professional Bulletin, 464 MANSCEN Loop, Building 3201, Suite 2661, Fort Leonard Wood, MO 65473-8926.
