

Homemade Explosives Recognition Guide

Multi-Lingual Versions

The Homemade Explosives Recognition Guide is a 58-page, 4 X 6 inch, spiral bound booklet available in 5 languages (English, Farsi, Dari, Pashto, and Urdu).

The guide contains images and text describing the indicators and warnings pertaining to homemade explosives. This booklet provides a quick reference to establish an awareness level so that responders can visually recognize the materials, chemicals, and equipment associated with the manufacture of homemade explosives. The Homemade Explosives Recognition Guide will help all on-scene personnel visually assess the possibility that a situation involves the manufacture of homemade explosives.
