CUBA'S ANALYSIS OF FACTS AND POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCES BELIEVED NECESSARY

[23] Nov 63
--

[XM] therefore, because of the [XM] which occurred yesterday in the United States and resulted in the assassination of the President of that country [XM] of international policy, that is why we believe we must make a calm and particularly objective analysis of the facts and of their possible consequences.

The Government of the United States, both the previous EISENHOWER Administration and the KENNEDY Administration, has not practiced a precisely friendly policy toward us. The policy of both administrations has been characterized by an aggressive,

hostile and implacable spirit toward our country.

Our country has been the victim of aggressions of an economic type tending to cause the ruin of our economy and hunger among our people. It has been the victim of attacks of every kind which have caused bloodshed. Hundreds of our compatriots have lost their lives, defending themselves against the attacks of Yankee imperialism. And that is not all. [XM]
