HA POLICY 95-014

IMPLEMENTING GUIDANCE

DEFENSE AWARDS FOR LEAD AGENT PERSONNEL

Reference. DoD 1348.33-M, Manual of Military Decorations and Awards, June 1993.

GENERAL PROVISIONS:

1. The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs (HA) has been granted authority to submit recommendations for joint service awards for personnel assigned to and performing Lead Agent duties.
2. In order to maintain credibility of the awards program, it is imperative that the appropriate award is given based on the individual's level of responsibility, significance of accomplishments, and manner of performance. Performance must be above and beyond that which is expected of the nominee's grade and the established responsibility and performance level of the position. Inflated assessments of performance and contributions to DoD will result in the loss of the ability to provide distinctive recognition to those individual who truly deserve higher awards.
3. Individual service awards will be submitted on personnel who are working with but not assigned to the Lead Agent, if an award is deserved.
4. No Defense decoration will be awarded or presented to any service member whose entire service during or after the time of the distinguished act, achievement, or service has not been honorable.
5. The number of decorations that may be awarded to a service member is not limited; however, only one decoration is awarded for the same act, achievement, or period of service. Defense decorations will not be awarded to any service member for an act, achievement, or period of service for which a service decoration has been awarded.

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS:

1. The Defense Distinguished Service Medal (DDSM)
 - a. The DDSM shall only be awarded to officers of the Armed Forces of the United States whose exceptional performance of duty and contributions to national security or defense have been at the highest levels. Such officers have direct and ultimate responsibility for a major activity or program that significantly influences the policies of the U.S. Government.

b. Normally, such broad responsibilities shall be held by only the most senior officers whose duties bring them into direct and frequent contact with the Secretary of Defense and other senior officials within the Government. Examples of such positions are the Chairman of Joint Chiefs of Staff; the Chiefs and Vice Chiefs of the Military Services, including the Commandant and Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps; and the CINCs and Deputy CINCs of the Unified and Specified Commands.

c. The DDSM may also be awarded to other senior officers who serve in positions of great responsibility, or to an officer whose direct and individual contributions to national security or defense are recognized as being so exceptional in scope and value as to be equivalent to contributions normally associated with positions encompassing broader responsibilities.

2. The Defense Superior Service Medal (DSSM) Use the same criteria for recommendations that is used for the Legion of Merit.

3. The Defense Meritorious Service Medal (DMSM) Use the same criteria for recommendations that is used for the Meritorious Service Medal.

4. The Joint Service Commendation Medal (JSCM) Use the same criteria for recommendations that is used for the Commendation Medals.

5. The Joint Service Achievement Medal (JSAM) Use the same criteria for recommendations that is used for the Achievement Medals.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Members of the U.S. Armed Forces assigned to a Lead Agent for at least consecutive 12 months.

2. The following exceptions will be considered on a case by case basis:

a. Personnel who are permanently assigned greater than 90 days and are reassigned out of the geographical area by their service. This does not include those personnel who have been assigned to a Lead Agent with less than 12 months left in the area before they are eligible to receive credit for a complete tour in that area.

b. Individual Mobilization Augmentees permanently assigned to and working for the Lead Agent for at least 12 months.

c. Reservists attached to a Lead Agent for a minimum of 90 consecutive days and the achievement is truly outstanding.

d. TDY personnel assigned to the Lead Agent for at least 90 consecutive days and the achievement is truly outstanding.

PROCEDURES:

1. Each recommendation for a Defense decoration will be evaluated on the merits of the justification submitted. Recommendations based on generalities, broad or vague terminology, superlative adjectives, or a recapitulation of duties performed do not permit competent evaluation. The justification must be specific, factual and provide concrete examples of exactly what the person did, how well he or she did it, and what the impact or benefits were and how they significantly exceeded expected performance of duty.
2. All recommendations will be submitted by official memorandum or letter (original plus 3 copies) from or through the Lead Agent and appropriate Surgeon(s) General to Health Affairs. Attachment B provides guidelines for preparation of awards.
3. All recommendations placed in official channels must be forwarded to the designated authority for approval/disapproval whether or not intermediate endorsing officials or commanders consider the criteria for the proposed decoration have been met. Intermediate endorsing officials or commanders will recommend approval, disapproval, downgrade or upgrade on all awards that are submitted. An award is considered to be in official channels when it is signed by the initiating official and endorsed by a higher official in the chain of command.
4. All recommendations will be reviewed by the HA awards board which will consist of a representative from each service and HA.
5. All recommendations that the HA awards board makes a unanimous recommendation on will be sent to the Washington Headquarters Services (WHS) awards board with that recommendation.
6. All recommendations with a split vote by the HA awards board will be reviewed by the Principal Deputy for HA and forwarded to the WHS awards board with a recommendation.
7. All awards should be submitted in sufficient time to arrive at HA at least 90 days prior to the desired date of presentation.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Lead Agents will:
 - a. Ensure that personnel meet the eligibility requirements.
 - b. Ensure that awards are submitted in accordance with the instructions at attachment B.
 - c. Forward recommendations through the appropriate Surgeon(s) General to HA. Recommendations will be reviewed by the Surgeon(s) General responsible for the Lead Agent and the parent service, with administrative responsibility, of the proposed awardee.
2. Surgeons General will:

- a. Appoint a primary and alternate representative to the HA awards review board.
- b. Ensure that members of their service are not pending any administrative or disciplinary actions.
- c. Forward recommendations to HA with a recommendation for approval, disapproval, upgrade or downgrade.

3. Health Affairs will:

- a. Establish an awards board to review all joint service recommendations.
- b. Ensure that all awards are reviewed and forwarded to the WHS awards board in a timely manner.
- c. Forward the results of the WHS awards board back to the appropriate Lead Agent.

4. Washington Headquarters Services will:

- a. Process all awards and return the board results/awards to HA.
- b. Provide the appropriate medal with each award.

5. Individual(s) will:

Ensure that a copy of the certificate, citation and order are placed in their personnel records in accordance with the awards memorandum which is the order.
