TRACEN Cape May Vision

“The Men and Women of Training Center Cape May will:

- Develop America’s Maritime Guardians in a manner that secures the trust and confidence of our Service and the families who entrust us with the care of their loved ones.
- Provide the highest level of support to our tenant commands to ensure they have the proper environment to successfully execute their mission.
- Respect our shipmates and honor our profession as Guardians in service to our Nation.
- Provide a first-class working environment that presents the finest image of the United States Coast Guard and allows us to effectively carry out our duties.”

Command Philosophy

Do Right (Honor)

Do Your Best (Devotion to Duty)

Care About Others & Yourself
(Respect)

Do Right (Honor)

- Be a leader of character.
- Know and live the Guardian Ethos.
- Do what's right on duty, in your workspace, on the Regiment, in the classroom, and on liberty.
- Follow and support our SOP & Regulations.
- Be ethically and morally centered.
- Safety is job #1.
- If we neglect it we condone it!

Do Your Best (Devotion to Duty)

- Take pride in the job at hand & do it your best.
- Set the standard for uniform and grooming.
- Make our Base shine.
- Strive to be on top of your “game” every time
- We all play an important role in building Guardians!
- Feedback is Critical!
- Meet all your readiness and training requirements to advance & promote.

Care About Others (Respect)

- Always strive to treat others with the utmost respect.
- Ensure we always provide a safe place to live, learn & work.
- Let the Command & Chief's Mess help you.
 - We can help & eliminate surprises
- Take care of your families & ...Take care of yourself.
- Look for opportunities to have fun.
- Ensure every new shipmate is welcomed, trained and set up for success.
- Ensure we always acknowledge good performance through timely and appropriate recognition.
- Recruit your replacement, build our Team!
