EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This Demographics Report, which was prepared for the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD), presents a synthesis of demographic information describing members and families in the military community in fiscal year 2004¹. Active Duty service branches include DoD's Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force; and the Reserve Components include DoD's Army National Guard, Army Reserve, Naval Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve, and the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) Coast Guard Reserve.

Overview of Military Personnel

The total number of military personnel is over 3.4 million strong, including Active Duty military personnel (1,412,133); DHS's Active Duty Coast Guard members (39,006); DoD Ready Reserve and DHS Coast Guard Reserve members (1,145,035); and DoD appropriated-fund civilian personnel (809,647). DoD and DHS's Coast Guard Active Duty members comprise the largest portion of the military force (42.6%), supplemented by Ready Reserve members (33.6%) and DoD civilian personnel sponsored with appropriated funds (23.8%).

Active Duty: Member and Family Highlights

Service Branches. The Army has the largest number of Active Duty members (494,291) followed by the Navy (368,211), the Air Force (372,611) and the Marine Corps (177,020). There are also 39,006 Active Duty members of the DHS's Coast Guard. At a total of 1,412,133 DoD Active Duty service members, the military force of 2004 is 30.4 percent smaller than it was in 1990 (when there were 2,029,300 Active Duty members). In the past fourteen years, the number of DoD Active Duty members in each service branch has declined by as little as 9.8 percent in the Marine Corps to as much as 35.8 percent in the Navy. The Active Duty decline from 1990 to 2004 in the Army and Air Force is 32.1 percent and 29.8 percent, respectively.

Ratio of Ranks. The Active Duty force has one officer for every 5.2 enlisted personnel. In comparison, the Air Force has one officer for every 4.0 enlisted personnel, the Army has one officer for every 5.1 enlisted personnel, the Navy has one officer for every 5.8 enlisted personnel, and the Marine Corps has one officer for every 8.5 personnel.

Women. Women comprise 209,908 or 14.9 percent of the DoD Active Duty force. The percent of women in the Active Duty population has continued to increase over the past fourteen years (from 11.5% of officers and 10.9% of enlisted in 1990, to 15.4% of officers and 14.8% of enlisted members in 2004). Overall, the number and ratio of women officers (35,139) to women enlisted (174,769) is one woman officer for every 5.0 women enlisted members. This ratio varies across the military Services with the Air Force having one female officer for every 4.4 female enlisted personnel, the Army having one female officer for every 4.9 female enlisted personnel, the Navy having one female officer for every 5.6 female enlisted personnel, and the Marine Corps having one female officer for every 8.9 female enlisted personnel.

Racial Minorities. Over one-third (36.0%) or 507,664 of Active Duty members identify themselves as a minority (i.e., African American, Hispanic American, Native American, Alaskan Native, Asian American, Pacific Islander, or multi-racial). Similar to the trend with women, the percent of Active Duty members who identify themselves as a minority has increased in the past fourteen years (from 9.1% of officers and 28.2% of enlisted in 1990, to 21.7% of officers and

¹ Where available, the Demographics Report also provides data for fiscal years 1990, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2003 to denote trends.

38.7% of enlisted members in 2004). The overall ratio of minority officers (49,504) to minority enlisted personnel (458,160) is one minority officer for every 9.3 minority enlisted personnel. This ratio varies across the military Services with the Air Force having one minority officer for every 6.6 minority enlisted personnel, the Army having one minority officer for every 8.6 minority enlisted personnel, the Navy having one minority officer for every 12.2 minority enlisted personnel, and the Marine Corps having one minority officer for every 13.1 minority enlisted personnel.

Geographic Location. While the Active Duty population is located throughout the world, the three primary areas in which Active Duty members are assigned are the United States and its territories (84.4%), Europe (8.1%) and East Asia (6.6%). The ten states with the highest Active Duty military populations are California (167,098), Virginia (137,681), Texas (112,283), North Carolina (101,563), Georgia (70,641), Florida (66,256), Washington (53,171), Hawaii (44,068), South Carolina (38,361), and Kentucky (35,171).

Age. Almost half of the Active Duty force is 25 years old or younger (47.4%), with the next largest age group being 26- to 30-year-olds (18.5%), followed by 31- to 35-year-olds (13.8%), 36- to 40-year-olds (11.7%) and those 41 years old or older (8.5%). Overall, the average age of the Active Duty force is 28.2, while the average age for Active Duty officers is 34.5, and the average age for enlisted personnel is 27.0.

Education Level. The majority (86.6%) of officers have a Bachelor's or higher degree. Few (3.9%) enlisted members have a Bachelor's or higher degree, while most (93.7%) have a high school diploma and/or some college experience. In the past fourteen years, the percent of Active Duty members who have a Bachelor's and/or an advanced degree has decreased for officers (from 89.6% in 1990, to 86.6% in 2004) but has increased for enlisted (from 2.5% in 1990, to 3.9% in 2004).

Marital Status. Just over half (52.9%) of Active Duty military members are married, which is lower than the percent that were married in 1990 (57.2%). A majority (69.1%) of officers identify themselves as married as compared to the slightly less than half (49.8%) of enlisted personnel who report themselves as married. In addition, 6.8 percent of DoD's Active Duty members are in dual-military marriages². The Air Force has 12.4 percent of military members in dual-military marriages, the Navy has 5.1 percent, the Army has 5.0 percent, the Marine Corps has 3.7 percent of military members in dual-military marriages. A small percentage of officer (3.3%) and enlisted personnel (3.7%) report that they received a divorce during the 2004 fiscal year.

Spouses, Children and Adult Dependents. There are fewer Active Duty members (1,412,133) than their associated family members (1,895,310). Over one-third (37.0%) of Active Duty members are married with children and 5.8 percent are single parents. The largest group of children (471,883) are between birth through 5 years old, with nearly that many (385,435) between the ages of 6 through 11 years old, somewhat fewer (295,161) between the ages of 12 through 18 years old, and substantially fewer (46,240) between the ages of 19 through 23 years old. There are 8,173 adult dependents ages 23 and older among the families of Active Duty members.

² Dual military marriages refer to a military member in one Service being married to a military member in the same or different Service.

Reserve and Guard: (Selected Reserve) Member and Family Highlights

Reserve Component. The data pertaining to Reserve and Guard members depicts the Selected Reserve only, unless otherwise specified. The introduction to Section IV describes the composition of the Reserve forces of the United States, and explains why most data displays are limited to Selected Reserve personnel. The Reserve and Guard Force consists of 859,406 members and seven components. The Army National Guard (342,918) and Army Reserve (204,131) have the largest number of Selected Reserve members, followed by the Air National Guard (106,822), the Naval Reserve (82,558), the Air Force Reserve (75,322), the Marine Corps Reserve (39,644), and the DHS's Coast Guard Reserve (8,011). As the number of members in the Active Duty force has declined in the past fourteen years, the overall number of members in the Selected Reserve—when compared to 1990—has also decreased. The Reserve force is 26.3 percent smaller than it was in 1990 (when there were 1,165,336 Reservists).

Ratio of Ranks. The Selected Reserve is composed of 14.9 percent officer (128,270) and 85.1 percent enlisted personnel (731,136). Overall, there is one officer for every 5.7 enlisted personnel. This ratio varies across the Selected Reserve, with the Air Force Reserve and Naval Reserve having one officer for every 3.5 enlisted personnel, the Army Reserve having one officer for every 4.3 enlisted personnel, the Coast Guard Reserve having one officer for every 5.6 enlisted personnel, the Air National Guard having one officer for every 6.8 enlisted personnel, the Army National Guard having one officer for every 8.3 enlisted personnel, and the Marine Corps Reserve having one officer for every 10.4 enlisted personnel.

Women. Women comprise 148,659 or 17.3 percent of the Selected Reserve force. The percent of women in the Selected Reserve has continuously increased over the past fourteen years (from 14.4% of officers and 12.8% of enlisted in 1990, to 17.9% of officers and 17.2% of enlisted in 2004). Overall, the ratio of women officers (22,914) to women enlisted (125,745) is one woman officer for every 5.5 women enlisted members. This ratio varies widely across the Selected Reserve with the Air Force Reserve having one female officer for every 3.1 female enlisted personnel, the Army Reserve having one female officer for every 4.3 female enlisted personnel, the Naval Reserve having one female officer for every 4.5 female enlisted personnel, the Coast Guard Reserve having one female officer for every 4.9 female enlisted personnel, the Air National Guard having one female officer for every 7.7 female enlisted personnel, the Marine Corps Reserve having one female officer for every 8.4 female enlisted personnel, and the Army National Guard having one female officer for every 10.4 female enlisted personnel.

Racial Minorities. Almost one-third (30.6% or 263,155) of the Selected Reserve identifies themselves as a minority (i.e., African American, Hispanic American, Native American, Alaskan Native, Asian American, Pacific Islander, or multi-racial). The Selected Reserve is composed of 25,898 minority officers and 237,257 minority enlisted personnel, with one minority officer for every 9.2 minority enlisted personnel. This ratio varies widely across the Reserve Components, with the Naval Reserve having one minority officer for every 5.8 minority enlisted personnel, the Army Reserve having one minority officer for every 7.0 minority enlisted personnel, the Air Force Reserve having one minority officer for every 7.6 minority enlisted personnel, the Coast Guard Reserve having one minority officer for every 8.0 minority enlisted personnel, the Air National Guard having one minority officer for every 11.1 minority enlisted personnel, the Army National Guard having one minority officer for every 14.8 minority enlisted personnel, and the Marine Corps Reserve having one minority officer for every 19.7 minority enlisted personnel. The overall minority representation in the Selected Reserve has increased from 12.3% officers and 24.0% enlisted personnel in 1990 to 20.2% officers and 32.5% enlisted personnel in 2004.

Geographic Location. The majority (852,402 or 99.2%) of the Selected Reserve is located throughout the United States and its territories. The ten states with the highest Selected Reserve population are California (61,213), Texas (52,955), Pennsylvania (36,754), New York (32,301), Florida (32,040), Ohio (29,747), Alabama (27,718), Georgia (27,211), Virginia (25,737), and Illinois (24,906), respectively.

Age. The largest age group of the Selected Reserve is 25 years old or younger (30.8%), with the next largest group being those 41 years old or older (25.4%), followed by 36- to 40-year-olds (15.8%), 31- to 35-year-olds (14.6%) and 26- to 30-year-olds (13.3%).

Education Level. The majority (84.6%) of Selected Reserve officers have a Bachelor's or higher degree. Most enlisted members (86.6%) have a high school diploma and/or some college experience, and 7.8 percent of enlisted members have a Bachelor's degree or higher. In the past fourteen years, the percentage of Selected Reserve who have a Bachelor's and/or advanced degree has increased for both officers (from 72.0% in 1990 to 84.6% in 2004) and enlisted personnel (from 6.7% in 1990 to 7.8% in 2004).

Marital Status. Just over half (51.5%) of the Selected Reserve/Guard are married as compared to the 53.0 percent in 1990 who were married. For 2004, 38.1 percent of Selected Reserve females and 54.3 percent of Selected Reserve males are married. About three-fourths (74.2%) of Selected Reserve officers and 47.5 percent of Selected Reserve enlisted personnel report themselves as married. In addition, 2.5 percent of the Selected Reserves report that they are in a dual-military marriage. A small percentage of Selected Reserve officers (2.7%) and enlisted personnel (3.1%) report that they received a divorce sometime during the 2004 fiscal year.

Spouses, Children and Adult Dependents. There are fewer Selected Reserve members (859,406) than their associated family members (1,168,392). Just over one-third of the Selected Reserve (34.4%) is married with children and 8.2 percent are single parents. The largest group of children is between the ages of 6 and 14 years (346,413), and the next largest groups are between birth and 5 years (183,648), and 15 through 18 years (127,385). The smallest group of children is between the ages of 19 and 22 years (79,706). In addition, there are 1,681 adult dependents 23 years and older claimed as dependents by the families of Selected Reserve members.

INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

This Demographics Report presents a synthesis of demographic information describing Active Duty (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) Coast Guard) and Reserve Component (Army National Guard, Army Reserve, Naval Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Air National Guard, Air Force Reserve and DHS's Coast Guard Reserve) members and their families. It serves as a reference tool for professionals who develop policy or deliver programs and services to military members and families in the Armed Forces. For previous years' reports, please visit the Military HomeFront Portal at <http://militaryhomefront.dod.mil>.

The 2004 Report

To provide a holistic profile of the entire military community, the 2004 Report presents demographic information for the Active Duty and Reserve and Guard personnel. In addition, selected Census data are presented as a point of reference, and military demographics trends for 1990, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003 are included wherever possible.

Presentation of Information

Military member demographics and family demographics are presented separately for Active Duty and Reserve and Guard populations as follows:

- Section I: DoD Total Force
- Section II: Active Duty Members
- Section III: Active Duty Families
- Section IV: Reserve and Guard Members
- Section V: Reserve and Guard Families
- Section VI: Reference Tables
- Data Sources and References.

The data contained in this publication were derived from a variety of sources and, in general, only data that are available on a consistent basis for all Services are presented. The majority of data are managed by the Defense Manpower Data Center, particularly the Active Duty Master File and Family File, the Reserve Components Common Personnel Data System and Family File, and the Fiscal Year 2004 Official Guard and Reserve Manpower Strengths and Statistics (1147/1148) book.

All exhibits included in this report contain source citations, and the Data Sources and References section of this document provides a reference for all data sources. Readers needing additional information are encouraged either to contact the Military Family Resource Center or to directly access the listed sources.

Guidelines for Interpreting Data

Guiding principles for interpreting data include:

- Numbers for population groups (e.g., Active Duty, enlisted) may vary across exhibits as a result of different data sources, missing data and/or rounding.
- Percents may not total to 100 due to rounding or missing data.

Introduction

- Warrant Officers are included with Officers unless otherwise noted.
- “Senior enlisted” refers to pay grades E-7 to E-9, while “senior officers” refers to pay grades O-7 to O-10.

In the Active Duty sections of this report, data are presented for the four DoD service branches (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force). Some information about the DHS’s Active Duty Coast Guard is presented in the DoD Total Force section of this report. In the Reserve and Guard Military Members section, the label “Total DoD” is used to reflect the six Reserve Components (Army National Guard, Army Reserve, Naval Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve) under DoD, while “Total Selected Reserve” includes DHS’s Coast Guard Reserve data in addition to data from the DoD Reserve Components.

The data pertaining to Reserve and Guard members depicts the Selected Reserve and the National Guard and does not include any other Ready Reserve forces (i.e., Individual Ready Reserve and Inactive National Guard) unless otherwise specified. The introduction to Section IV describes the composition of the Reserve forces of the United States and explains why most data displays are limited to Selected Reserve personnel.

All data pertaining to Active Duty and Selected Reserve family members (i.e., spouses, children and dependent adults) are extracted from the Defense Enrollment and Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS). The data are dependent on the military members reporting the necessary information.

SECTION I: DOD TOTAL FORCE

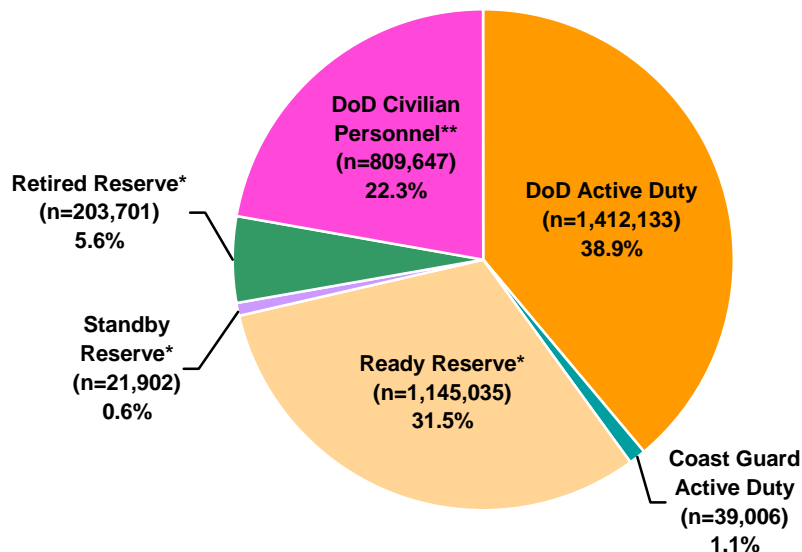

This section contains numeric data for the total military population, including Active Duty, Reserve/Guard forces, and DoD civilians.

TOTAL DoD FORCE

1.01. Number and Percent of Military Force Personnel (N=3,631,424)

The total military force is comprised of 3,631,424 people who are Active Duty and Reserve and Guard members from all branches of the DoD, civilian personnel who support the DoD, and the DHS's Coast Guard. DoD's Active Duty members make up 38.9 percent of the total military force. Data for all Active Duty members and their families are presented in Sections II and III.

All Reserve and Guard manpower is assigned to one of three Reserve Component categories: the Ready Reserve, the Standby Reserve, or the Retired Reserve. The Ready Reserve makes up 33.6 percent of the total military force. The Ready Reserve is comprised of the Selected Reserve, the Individual Ready Reserve, and the Inactive National Guard. Because Selected Reserve members train throughout the year and participate annually in Active Duty training exercises, they are the primary focus of the Reserve sections of this report. The DHS's Coast Guard Reserve members are frequently called for duty, therefore, their data are included as well. Data for all Selected Reserve members and their families are presented in Sections IV and V.

* Includes Coast Guard Reserve.

 Includes appropriated fund civilians.

ACTIVE DUTY AND READY RESERVE

1.02. Military Personnel by DoD Component and Coast Guard (N=2,596,174)

Active Duty and Reserve and Guard members of the Army make up the largest percent of military personnel (44.6%), followed by Active Duty and Reserve and Guard members of the Air Force (22.8%), the Navy (19.9%), the Marine Corps (10.7%), and the Coast Guard (2.0%).

ACTIVE DUTY

1.05. DoD Active Duty and DHS Coast Guard Active Duty Trends: 1990-2004

Today's DoD Active Duty force is 30.4 percent smaller than it was in 1990. The percent reported at the end of each line represents the relative difference in the size of the force in 2004 compared to the size of the force in 1990. The Navy has had the largest percent decrease across all of the Service branches, while the DHS Coast Guard has had an increase in the number of members compared to 1990.

Note: Data are represented ONLY for the years indicated. Data for the years in between are NOT represented in this graph.

DOD CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

DoD civilians are divided into two primary categories. Appropriated Funds (AF) civilian employees are funded by congressional appropriations, while Non-Appropriated Funds (NAF) civilian employees are not funded by congressional appropriations. Rather, NAF positions are funded by revenue generating activities.

SECTION II: ACTIVE DUTY MEMBERS

This section focuses on the total Active Duty population. Special areas of interest include information on the status of Active Duty women and minorities, geographic location, age, level of education, marital status, and retirements and separations from Active Duty.

ACTIVE DUTY PERSONNEL

2.01. Officers and Enlisted on Active Duty (N=1,412,133)

There are 1,412,133 Active Duty members. Around 16 percent (228,038) of the members are officers and 83.9 percent (1,184,095) are enlisted members.

DMDC Active Duty Master File (September 2004)

2.02. Number and Ratio of Active Duty Officers to Enlisted by Service Branch

The Active Duty force has one officer for every 5.2 enlisted personnel. In comparison, the Air Force has one officer for every 4.0 enlisted personnel, the Army has one officer for every 5.1 enlisted personnel, the Navy has one officer for every 5.8 enlisted personnel, and the Marine Corps has one officer for every 8.5 enlisted personnel.

Service Branch	Officers	Enlisted	Total	Ratio of Officers to Enlisted
Army	80,776	413,515	494,291	1 to 5.1
Navy	54,319	313,892	368,211	1 to 5.8

2.50. Estimated Divorces by Service Branch and Pay Grade

The DoD collects information on marital status year to year. The number of divorces are estimated by comparing the number of people who indicated that they were married in 2003, but no longer indicate a status of married in 2004. Additionally, the number of divorces displayed are a count of divorces that occurred in 2004, not a count of all military members who are divorced. The percents are calculated by taking the count and dividing it by the number of people that were married in 2003.

Official Guard and Reserve Manpower Strengths & Statistics Book (1147/48) FY 2004 Summary

SECTION III: ACTIVE DUTY FAMILIES

This section contains information on the family characteristics of Active Duty members, including spouses of Active Duty personnel and the numbers and ages of children and other eligible beneficiaries. Special areas of emphasis include family status; spousal age, gender, and employment status; number and age of adult and minor dependents; and dual-military and single parents. All of the data referring to dependents (spouses [except spouse employment status], children, and dependent adults) are extracted from the Defense Enrollment & Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS); therefore, the data are likely to be under-reported.

SECTION IV: RESERVE AND GUARD MEMBERS

This section contains numeric data on Selected Reserve (Sel Res), which includes the Guard components, as well as the Reserve components and the Coast Guard Reserve. All Reserve and Guard manpower is assigned to one of three reserve component categories: the Ready Reserve, the Standby Reserve, and the Retired Reserve. The first two exhibits present information on Ready Reserve personnel. The Ready Reserve is comprised of the Selected Reserve, the Individual Ready Reserve, and the Inactive National Guard. Because Selected Reserve members train throughout the year and participate annually in Active Duty training exercises, all but the first two and last two exhibits in this section are focused on the Selected Reserve. The specific characteristics of the Selected Reserve Components addressed in this section include the status of Selected Reserve women and minorities, geographic location, age, education level, marital status, and retirements and separations.

READY RESERVE PERSONNEL

4.01. Officers and Enlisted of the Ready Reserve (N=1,145,035)

The Ready Reserve is a major source of manpower and is comprised of the Selected Reserve, the Individual Ready Reserve (IRR), and the Inactive National Guard (ING). IRR and ING members typically have served as Active Duty or Selected Reserve members in the past, but do not currently participate in organized training. Selected Reserve members train throughout the year and participate annually in Active Duty training exercises.

4.50. Estimated Divorces by Reserve Component and Pay Grade

The DoD collects information on marital status year to year. The number of divorces are estimated by comparing the number of people who indicated that they were married in 2003, but no longer indicate a status of married in 2004. Additionally, the number of divorces displayed are a count of divorces that occurred in 2004, not a count of all military members who are divorced. The percents are calculated by taking the count and dividing it by the number of people that were married in 2003.

SECTION V: RESERVE AND GUARD FAMILIES

This section contains information on family characteristics of Selected Reserve members, including spouses of Reserve and Guard personnel and the numbers and ages of children and other eligible beneficiaries. Special areas of interest include family status, spousal age and gender, number and age of adult and minor dependents, and dual-military and single parents. All of the data referring to dependents (spouses, children, and dependent adults) are extracted from the Defense Enrollment & Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS); therefore, the data are likely to be under-reported.

SECTION VI: REFERENCE TABLES

This section contains information on 2004 and 2005 basic monthly pay and allowances, comparative pay grades and ranks, and CONUS base populations and locations.

2004 BASIC MONTHLY PAY

Pay grades are administrative classifications used primarily to standardize compensation across the military services. The “E” in E1 stands for “enlisted” while the “1” indicates the pay grade for that position. The other pay categories are “W” for warrant officers and “O” for commissioned officers. Basic monthly pay for 2004 is rounded to the nearest dollar (e.g., $2,264.40 is rounded to $2,264 and $2,608.50 is rounded to $2,609). If no dollar amount is listed, then a dollar figure is not established for that category.

2005 BASIC ALLOWANCE FOR SUBSISTENCE

The Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) is a benefit for service members who are also entitled to basic pay. Rates for Partial BAS and Emergency Rations (EMRATS) and rates for enlisted members with less than four months of service were eliminated. As of January 1, 2005, RIKNA (rations in kind not available) and SEPRATS (authorized to mess separately) were eliminated in favor of one rate for enlisted members.

2004 DRILL PAY FOR OFFICERS

Drill pay is the amount Reservists are reimbursed for training. One drill is at least three hours of training, and four drills normally represents one weekend of training (equaling 8 hours on Saturday and 8 hours on Sunday). If no dollar amount is listed, then a dollar figure was not established for that category. When an officer from a Reserve Component was called for active duty during the 2004 calendar year, the Service member was salaried for his/her equivalent pay grade at the Basic Pay amount.

2005 DRILL PAY FOR ENLISTED

Drill pay is the amount Reservists are reimbursed for training. One drill is at least three hours of training, and four drills normally represents one weekend of training (equaling 8 hours on Saturday and 8 hours on Sunday). If no dollar amount is listed, then a dollar figure was not established for that category. When an enlisted Reservist is called for active duty during the 2005 calendar year, the Service member is salaried for his/her equivalent pay grade at the Basic Pay amount.

ARMED FORCES COMPARATIVE PAY GRADES AND RANKS

While pay grades are administrative classifications used primarily to standardize compensation across the military services, ranks indicate a level of responsibility (for personnel, equipment, and mission), which grows with each increase in rank.
