WELCOME

Ellsworth Air Force Base, located 10 miles east of Rapid City, is home to the 28th Bomb Wing. Nestled in the majestic Black Hills, Ellsworth is surrounded by numerous scenic sights. From the majestic Badlands to the east, to the Black Hills in the west and the grazing buffalo and pristine lakes in Custer State Park, this is a region of great natural beauty. Legendary sites including Mount Rushmore, Crazy Horse Memorial, Fort Meade, historic Deadwood and Devil's Tower are a short distance from Ellsworth. The area has a rich history that includes Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull, General George Custer, Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane and Jack "Crooked Nose" McCall to name but a few.

Western South Dakota and the Black Hills offer a vast array of activities, especially those who enjoy nature and the outdoors. Opportunities for fishing, boating, snow and water skiing, hunting, hiking and camping await those who long to be outdoors. Whatever the season, the Ellsworth and Rapid City communities can be a wonderful place to work and live.

POPULATION

Ellsworth's population of approximately 9,000 includes military members, family members and civilian employees. The base's two sister cities are Box Elder (population of nearly 8,000) and Rapid City (population of just over 67,100). There are also about 3,800 military retirees in western South Dakota.

TIME ZONE

The base and Western South Dakota are on Mountain Standard Time.

QUICK TIPS

HOUSE HUNTING, PERMISSIVE TDY

For the purpose of securing non-government housing, personnel can take 10 days of permissive TDY from their current base and return for out-processing, or take eight days after they check in with their new unit at Ellsworth. Contact your local personnel office and unit for details.

IN-PROCESSING

This begins at your unit. Servicemembers should report, with their sponsors, to the Rushmore Center and the 28th Forces Support Squadron customer service office upon their arrival. Personnel will be in-processed through the Right Start program, a mandatory briefing for all newly arrived servicemembers designed to minimize the time and appointments needed to introduce them to the base and organization quickly. Spouses are welcome at Right Start and encouraged to attend. Right Start is located at the Rushmore Center, 1000 Ellsworth St., Suite 1400. Bring all no-fee passports you may have if coming from an overseas location.

INCOME TAX

There are income tax advantages associated with moving costs. Keep records and receipts on all expenses associated with a move (travel expenses, meals and lodging, meals and lodging while occupying temporary quarters, expenses attributable to the sale, purchase or lease of a residence, etc.). Upon completing a move, see your organization's legal assistance officer who will help in preparing the proper tax forms. Many or most of costs are deductible by using IRS Forms 3903 or 3903E. Additionally, South Dakota does not have state income tax for residents.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS SHIPMENT INFORMATION

Upon arrival, check with the Traffic Management Office regarding household goods or hold baggage shipped to Ellsworth. They can be reached by calling (605) 385-5325 or 5324.

DRIVER'S LICENSE

Non-residents may operate a motor vehicle in South Dakota in accordance with the general motor vehicle laws. Non-resident military personnel and dependents are exempt from South Dakota licensing requirements provided they keep their out-of-state operator's license current, properly claim legal residency in that state and the military sponsor remains on active duty. For more information, call the Department of Motor Vehicles at (605) 394-2912.

VEHICLE REGISTRATION

There is no requirement for vehicles to be registered at Ellsworth; however, all vehicles must have a valid state registration and be insured.

VEHICLE SAFETY – RULES OF THE ROAD

Generally, all rules of the road applicable to the operation of a motor vehicle on South Dakota roads apply on Ellsworth. Unless otherwise posted, the speed limit on Ellsworth is 25 mph. On streets in the housing areas, the speed limit is 15 mph, and 10 mph in parking lots. The speed on the flightline is 15 mph in aircraft parking areas and on the access roads.

The use of radar detectors or jammers is prohibited on Ellsworth and all other Department of Defense installations. It is legal to possess such devices in South Dakota, however, they must be turned off when driving on base.

The use of cell phones while driving is also prohibited; use of hands-free devices or Bluetooth technologies is allowed.

Open containers of alcoholic beverages are not permitted in the passenger compartment of any vehicle. Operating a vehicle on Ellsworth constitutes an implied consent to submit to a test for intoxication if requested, and refusal of testing will result in an automatic suspension of base driving privileges. The consumed level of intoxication in South Dakota is 0.08 percent blood alcohol content.

FIREARMS

South Dakota does not require registration of privately owned firearms. Permits to carry concealed weapons are issued by the Pennington County Sheriff's Department for a nominal fee after completion of a background check. These permits, however, do not authorize an individual to carry a concealed weapon on Ellsworth.

Privately-owned weapons, ammunition, fireworks and explosives are prohibited in bachelor living quarters and transient living quarters. People living in bachelor quarters are required to register their weapons with the 28th Security Forces Squadron, and are required, along with transient personnel, to store their weapons in the 28th SFS armory. People living in base housing are not required to register their weapons, and may keep their weapons and ammunition — not to exceed 500 rounds — in their homes.

People may transport privately owned weapons in their vehicles both on and off base and to the base firing and skeet ranges, but may not leave weapons unattended or unsecured in their vehicles. Weapons should be unloaded and locked in the trunk of the vehicle, if possible. Firearms transported in vehicles without trunks must be secured in a case.

ORGANIZATIONS

28TH BOMB WING

The 28th Bomb Wing is assigned to the 12th Air Force under Air Combat Command. The mission of the 28th Bomb Wing is to put bombs on target. Every Airman in the wing, whether they are maintaining equipment, assisting personnel, pulling a trigger or aiming crosshairs, plays a vital role in putting bombs on target. The 28th Bomb Wing is home to 28 B-1B Lancers, and in 2012 will begin flying MQ-9 Reaper missions.

The 28th Bomb Wing is divided into the 28th Operations Group, the 28th Maintenance Group, the 28th Mission Support Group and the 28th Medical Group. (see 28th Bomb Wing Organizational Chart on page 7)

The 28th Bomb Wing commander's staff consists of a vice commander, an executive officer, secretary, director of staff, command chief master sergeant, wing inspector general, historian, information management, protocol, public affairs, legal, chapel, equal opportunity, wing plans, treaty compliance, safety, AFISO21, antiterrorism, information protection, sexual assault response coordinator and the 28th Comptroller Squadron.

28TH OPERATIONS GROUP

The mission of the 28th Operations Group, whose motto is to Find and Kill the Enemy, is to provide combat-ready B-1B aircrews for world-wide taskings, including conventional operations and power projection. Airmen in the 28th OG fly the B-1B, plan and support combat operations, and develop deployment plans. Additionally, they manage the base airfield, radar approach control facilities, and air traffic control tower. The group also includes a weather section, a life support flight, and flight and tower simulators.

The 28th OG Intelligence Flight provides current intelligence information and analysis ranging from strategic intelligence for the base's senior leadership to the tactical level required by the group's combat aircrews.

The 28th Operations Group commands three squadrons and a detachment: the 28th Operations Support Squadron, the 34th Bomb Squadron, the 37th Bomb Squadron, and Detachment 1.

28TH OPERATIONS SUPPORT SQUADRON

The 28th Operations Support Squadron supports the 28th Bomb Wing in all aspects of flying operations to effectively and efficiently train and conduct combat operations.

A diverse squadron, the 28th OSS oversees airfield management, weather support, intelligence analysis, combat crew communications, B-1 simulator training, aircrew flight equipment, aircrew flight records, the Belle Fourche Electronic Scoring Site (ESS), combat survival training, and weapons and tactics training.

The airfield operations flight manages the base's airfield and runway, as well as radar approach control (RAPCON) and the control tower. In 2008, Ellsworth launched the Department of Defense's first noncontiguous RAPCON facility — the Dakota Air Traffic Control Facility, which controls airspace areas separated by more than 260 miles, including Rapid City Regional Airport, Ellsworth AFB, Minot Regional Airport and Minot AFB, N.D.

The weather support flight provides global weather information for all organizations on the base including operations, maintenance, and support.

Combat crew communications manages all flight publications and secure communications to support B-1 training and combat missions.

The current operations flight accomplishes long-range scheduling for the wing's aircraft, manages the wing's annual flying hour program, schedules and manages 28th Bomb Wing airspace, and maintains flight records for more than 160 aircrew.

The Belle Fourche ESS in Colony, Wyo., maintains and operates one of the Air Force's threat simulation sites supporting training and combat readiness for units across the Air Force and the Department of Defense.

Aircrew flight equipment builds and maintains all life sustaining aircrew equipment including survival vests and aircraft ejection seat kits. They also conduct all aircrew combat survival instruction for wing personnel and aircrews.

The Mission Employment Center operates and maintains two full-motion, state-of-the-art, Weapons System Trainers — or B-1 simulators — to support training for base aircrews. The simulators include the ability to virtually link to other simulators across the Department of Defense to provide integrated multi-force training.

The wing's focal point for B-1 tactics, training, and execution is the weapons and tactics flight. The flight is responsible for ensuring wing combat readiness for worldwide operational taskings, plans, and supports combat operations and deployments for two tactical B-1 squadrons. Additionally, it provides deployable planning and support teams for B-1 employment. The flight maintains the ability to deploy worldwide and function autonomously at forward locations.

34TH BOMB SQUADRON

Known as the Thunderbirds, the 34th Bomb Squadron's mission is to defeat America's enemies across the globe at a moment's notice.

The history of the 34th Bomb Squadron dates back to World War I, when the U.S. Army organized the 34th Aero Squadron in June 11, 1917. During assignment with the 17th Pursuit Group, the squadron became equipped with the P-12 biplane fighter. In 1935 and 1936, the squadron gradually transitioned from the P-12 and P-26 Peashooter to the A-17 and YA-19, which it kept until 1940 when it began flying the B-18 and the B-23 bombers. On April 18, 1942, 34th crews famously flew the B-25 Mitchell from the deck of the U.S.S. Hornet with crews from the 37th Bomb Squadron during the Doolittle Raid against Japan.

Throughout the war, the 34th flew bombing missions in the B-26 Invader overseas and then returned to the United States in November 1945. The day after its arrival, the squadron was inactivated. The 34th BS went through numerous activations and deactivations over its history. However, it was able to fly interdiction and close air support missions in Korea, transitioning to the B-57, the B-66, and then finally the B-52 Stratofortress aircraft.

When the unit moved to Ellsworth on April 1, 1994, it began flying the B-1B Lancer. On April 1, 1997, the squadron moved again, transferring to Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho. After the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the United States, the 34th BS was one of the first units to deploy overseas in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. On Sept. 19, 2002, the 34th BS moved back to Ellsworth from Mountain Home. As tensions rose in Iraq, the 34th BS deployed from Jan. 5 to May 15, 2003 in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation Southern Watch and Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Since 2003, the Thunderbirds have completed numerous deployments in support of Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. Starting in 2007, the 34th entered a regular deployment schedule with other B-1 units with one year at home station followed by six months deployed. On average, these deployments result in over 6,000 combat hours and more than 500 combat sorties flown supporting overseas contingency operations. On March 27, 2011 the 34th BS flew the first ever B-1 combat mission launched from the United States to strike overseas targets when it participated in Operation Odyssey Dawn, flying non-stop from Ellsworth to strike targets in Libya.

37TH BOMB SQUADRON

The 37th Bomb Squadron Tigers are responsible for employing the B-1B Lancer in support of Department of Defense missions.

The 37th BS consists of approximately 70 Airmen, including aviators, intelligence, and aviation resource management Airmen. These Airmen enable the Tigers to remain on the leading edge of B-1 employment supporting precision engagement and global attack missions.

The 37th BS is among the Air Force's most senior units. It began as the 37th Aero Squadron in June 1913, and served with the American Expeditionary Force in France during World War I. During World War II, the 37th served for a short time with the 28th Composite Group in 1940, and then was assigned to the 17th Bomb Group. As part of the 17th BG, the 37th participated in one of the most famous air raids of World War II. Three crews trained in B-25 Mitchell bombers and flew with Lieutenant Colonel Jimmy Doolittle on the famous raid over Tokyo in April 1942. After the war ended the squadron was deactivated. In 1950, the 37th reactivated as a night intruder squadron and transferred to Pusan, Korea. The squadron flew the B-26 Invader on night interdiction missions during the Korean War. The squadron "hunted at night, like tigers" and adopted its current patch: a Bengal Tiger.

The 37th Bomb Squadron joined the 28th Bomb Wing at Ellsworth in 1977, flying the B-25H Stratofortress. On Jan. 1, 1987, the squadron transitioned to its current aircraft, the B-1B Lancer.

In December 1998, the Tigers became the first unit to employ the B-1 in combat in support of Operation Desert Fox in Iraq. One year later, Tiger crews teamed with the 77th Bomb Squadron for Operation Allied Force and flew combat operations in Kosovo and Serbia.

After Sept. 11, 2001, the 37th again roared into action alongside the 34th and formed the 34th Expeditionary Bomb Squadron. Flying missions to Afghanistan, the squadron contributed to the 34th EBS effort to drive the Taliban from Afghanistan. During this time, the combined squadron flew 5 percent of the strike missions but released nearly 40 percent of the total bomb tonnage — more than 1,730 tons.

In March 2003, crews from the 37th BS joined crews from the 34th BS to employ the B-1 in action during Operation Iraqi Freedom. Tiger crews flew numerous combat missions over Iraq, including a strike against high priority leadership targets in Baghdad.

Since 2003, the Tigers accomplished numerous deployments supporting Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. In 2007, the 37th began regular deployments to the Middle East, rotating with other B-1 units, with one year at home station followed by six months deployed. On average the squadron flies over 6,000 combat hours and more than 500 combat sorties per deployment. Additionally, 37th BS personnel supported the 34th's Libya strike missions from Ellsworth from a forward operating location during Operation Odyssey Dawn, the first ever B-1 combat mission launched from the United States to strike overseas targets. A steady contributor to America's airpower might, the 37th Bomb Squadron Tigers surely will continue to contribute to securing America's safety for many more years.

DETACHMENT 1

Established on April 1, 2011, 28th Operations Group, Detachment 1 serves as the precursor to the planned activation of the 432nd Attack Squadron which will operate the remotely piloted MQ-9 Reaper. The squadron's activation is planned for late January 2012. Approximately 200 military personnel will be assigned to the new squadron.

The 432nd ATKS traces its heritage back to the 89th Aero Squadron which was activated to participate in World War I. Deactivated after the war, the squadron was reactivated in 1940 as the 89th Reconnaissance Squadron. The squadron trained on B-25 Mitchell bombers and participated in the Doolittle Raid over Tokyo with the 34th and 37th Bomb Squadrons. Shortly after the Doolittle Raid, the 89th Reconnaissance Squadron was redesignated the 432nd Bomb Squadron and assigned to the European theater. The 432nd Bomb Squadron was deactivated in November 1945.

28TH MISSION SUPPORT GROUP

The 28th Mission Support Group provides mission essential "city" services at home and combat support services to Airmen while deployed. The group provides essential services for active-duty members, retirees and civilians and their families including food services, security, vehicles, supplies, computer and telephone support, civil engineering, educational and recreational services, and personnel support. Six squadrons are under the 28th MSG umbrella: the 28th Communications Squadron, 28th Civil Engineer Squadron, 28th Contracting Squadron, 28th Force Support Squadron, 28th Security Forces Squadron and the 28th Logistics Readiness Squadron.

28TH CIVIL ENGINEER SQUADRON

world, in times of war and peace. The squadron's dual mission is to provide quality home-station engineer services for rapid, decisive, sustainable combat support, anytime, anywhere. Additionally, the Prime Base Engineer Emergency Force (Prime BEEF) mobility teams stand ready to rapidly deploy anytime, anywhere to provide fully responsive engineer capabilities in support of our nation's contingencies. This dual mission of war readiness and infrastructure maintenance is accomplished with a combined military and civilian work force capable of rapid transition between missions.

Civil engineers support the installation and the Air Force mission by applying resources to accomplish required tasks in the following areas — readiness/emergency management, real property maintenance and accountability, utility services, minor construction, fire protection, explosive ordnance disposal, disaster preparedness, environmental protection, non-real property services and technical and management services.

The squadron consists of seven flights: asset management, programs, operations, resources, emergency management, explosive ordnance disposal, and fire and emergency services.

In addition to daily operations, the civil engineer Prime BEEF is responsible for maintaining, repairing, operating and recovering the base — or any installation around the world — before, during and after a peacetime or wartime disaster, or deploying a fully capable engineer force in support of contingency operations.

28TH CONTRACTING SQUADRON

The mission of the 28th Contracting Squadron is to provide agile contracting support and business advice to Ellsworth and combatant commanders. The squadron consists of three flights:

The LGCA Acquisition Flight provides contract support for commodity and service requirements. The flight oversees $40 million in recurring service contracts, $5 million in medical support personnel contracts, $9 million in utilities and another $20 million in commodity purchases.

The LGCB Acquisition Flight provides construction and related support to the 28th Civil Engineer Squadron. The flight oversees $30 million and over 100 annual requirements for construction and direct support to the 28th Bomb Wing and Ellsworth tenant units.

The LGCP Plans and Programs Flight supports the base's contract Quality Assurance Program, Government Purchase Card program and Contracting Systems Support activity. The Quality Assurance Program Coordinator ensures contract compliance on 14 major service contracts in a $37 million portfolio. The government purchases total $10 million in annual expenditures. This flight is also responsible for maintaining the unit's procurement database and web-based systems. The Purchase Card Coordinator oversees nearly 200 managing accounts, 300 cards and 13,000 GPC activities.

In addition, all three flights collectively carry out congressionally-mandated socioeconomic programs through small business outreach events and by awarding contracts to businesses in several small business categories. Each year, the squadron awards more than $30 million to small businesses, which amounts to nearly 80 percent of available contract dollars. The squadron also contracts with a local AbilityOne contractor for another $13 million annually, which provides jobs for people with severe disabilities. Through these programs, 28th CONS not only complies with the law but also serves as a good community partner.

28TH COMMUNICATIONS SQUADRON

The 28th Communications Squadron's vision to set the cyberspace standard of excellence for the Air Force is summarized by their motto: "Wired for War." The squadron provides combat ready Airmen in support of warfighter requirements while developing cyberspace professionals focused on world class customer support to all units assigned to Ellsworth Air Force Base.

The squadron consists of two flights — Operations Flight, and Plans and Resources Flight — as well as a command section and Policy and Evaluations section.

The Operations Flight consists of six sections:

Airfield Systems supports Ellsworth's flying mission, the Rapid City Regional Airport, Minot Air Force Base, N.D., and the Western Air Defense Sector by maintaining geographically separated air traffic control and weather radar systems in direct support of military and civilian air traffic control. Infrastructure Systems manages network connectivity and sustains our Long-Haul Communications circuits. Knowledge Operations Management supports Ellsworth with enterprise information management, records management, knowledge management and content management functions. They also manage the wing publications and forms programs and oversee the wing Privacy Act and Freedom of Information Act programs

Cyber Systems Operations sustains servers that make technology work and continue to work for Ellsworth personnel. Be it network services, BlackBerry support, applications, file storage, firewalls, or anti-virus updates, the Airmen in CSO touch every user on a daily basis. RF Transmissions sustains numerous radio systems, the base "Giant Voice" emergency broadcast network in addition to providing public address system support.

The Client Service Center has three missions vital to both daily IT user services and mission systems maintenance. The heartbeat of the squadron, the Communications Focal Point maintains systems and personnel status, and directs corrective actions in a timely manner by interfacing with external agencies users, and production work centers. The CSC technicians provide desktop, voice network and personal wireless communication touch maintenance support along with installing and configuring software, operating systems and applications. Finally Computer Systems Management provides cradle to grave management and accountability of the entire wing's IT equipment. The Operations Flight also manages base postal activities.

The Plans and Resources Flight is a small but dynamic flight with three unique and vital missions:

The Plans Office provides short and long range communications and information planning for Ellsworth. The wing Information Assurance Office provides base-level information assurance services and manages communication security programs to include Communications, Computer, and Emission security as well the Information Assurance Awareness and Telecommunications Monitoring and Assessment Programs. Finally the Force Development office is the central point for all training, readiness, and deployment management.

The 28th Communication Squadron command section includes the squadron commander, superintendent, first sergeant, and unit program manager. The Policy and Evaluations Section ensures quality maintenance and other functional area support services through evaluation, deficiency identification and trend analysis.

28TH LOGISTICS READINESS SQUADRON

The mission of the 28th Logistics Readiness Squadron is to provide responsive, reliable and sustainable logistics support anytime, anywhere.

The squadron is made up of more than 340 professionals separated into four flights and two sections. These professionals provide support to 39 wing and tenant units with mobility readiness and operations, vehicle operations, vehicle and equipment maintenance, personal property and cargo shipments, fuel storage and distribution, supply and equipment accountability, war reserve materiel program, and maintains B-1 spares packages and aircraft parts.

The 28th LRS Deployment and Distribution Flight is the single wing authority for receiving, storing and shipping DoD supplies and equipment, handling more than 20,000 different commodities valued in excess of $174 million. It manages the base U-Drive-It fleet, buses and DV vehicles. Additionally, the Deployment and Distribution flight is the wing contact for war reserve materiel management, deployment planning, training and execution, base and expeditionary support planning, sustainment, redeployment, mobility bags, small arms weapons and wing support agreements management. This flight also manages air terminal operations, as well as provides logistics readiness deployment training for all installation personnel to carry out deployment tasks.

During contingency operations, the Deployment and Distribution flight provides wing command and control through the Deployment Control Center and the Installation Deployment Readiness Cell. The Deployment and Distribution Flight is also responsible for arranging the movement and storage of personal property and providing ticketing for official travel of DoD passengers. This is the flight to contact upon arrival at Ellsworth to arrange for delivery of household goods.

The squadron's Material Management Flight receives, stores, inventories and issues all stock listed materials for the 28th Bomb Wing. They are the focal point for all supply issues and the base level liaison for all equipment matters. Additionally the Material Management flight manages six B-1B mobility ready spares kits valued at more than $300 million that are postured for deployment at a moment's notice. They also accounts for all wing mobility bags and deployable small arms valued at more than $12 million. Lastly, the 28th LRS Material Management Flight ensures all repairable parts get processed and routed to the proper repair facilities and briefs the 28th Maintenance Group commander and 28th BW commander daily on aircraft MICAP status.

The Management and Systems Section provides the training, resources and systems required to ensure the efficient and effective operation of squadron processes. It is the primary liaison between base customers and the regional supply squadron. The flight provides interface with internal and external customers, and monitors performance to ensure quality service and accountability.

The 28th LRS Vehicle Management Flight is the single authority and source for maintenance and management of the installation's motor vehicle fleet. The flight is responsible for overall management, and maintenance of the wing's 630-vehicle fleet and assigns, accounts for and maintains vehicle assets so they are safe, efficient and environmentally sound to meet the wing's needs.

The Fuels Flight mission is to ensure more than 18 million gallons of quality petroleum products, cryogenics fluids and missile propellants are acquired or produced and issued safely and efficiently to using organizations annually.

28TH SECURITY FORCES SQUADRON

The defenders of the 28th Security Forces Squadron provide integrated defense and combat capability to Ellsworth, the United States and the Air Force worldwide. Whether at home station or forward deployed, members of the 28th SFS provide an impenetrable umbrella of force protection encompassing all personnel, property and resources.

The squadron is divided into five flights that handle support staff functions (S1); ground intelligence and investigations (S2); operations and training (S3); logistics (S4); and plans and programs (S5). These staff agencies perform such roles as planning, equipping, training, directing and evaluating mission-related activities and personnel assigned to the 28th SFS. The staff also provides base support including crime prevention, resource protection, criminal investigation and intelligence, incident reporting, visitor control, pass and registration and reports and analysis.

Integrated defense is achieved through security patrolling, community policing, military working dog teams, a base-wide camera and alarm network and strict installation access control. These functions are at work around the clock to ensure protection of the base populace and protection level resources. Patrols maintain an excellent relationship with the public by making contact with the base populace while on patrol in an effort to better understand their concerns about law enforcement issues.

The 28th SFS Military Working Dog section not only provides explosive and drug detection capabilities to the base, but also assists local civil authorities as needed.

The Defenders of the 28th Security Forces Squadron — "Courage Conquers All."

CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

The Civilian Personnel Flight provides services for approximately 400 civil service positions. Most jobs are in the logistics, medical and support areas.

About one third of the jobs serviced are wage grade (blue collar) and the rest, general schedule (white collar). Turnover in civil service jobs is somewhat limited. Employment opportunities are best for persons already in civil service. Employment information can be obtained at the Air Force Personnel Center Job website at <http://www.afpc.randolph.af.mil/afjobs> or by calling their information line at (800) 525-0102.

The base Commissary, Base Exchange and non-appropriated fund jobs are serviced by their own personnel offices. Additional information can be obtained by reviewing announcements and talking with staff members in the personnel office Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

MANPOWER

Located in the Rushmore Center, their mission is to provide manpower and organization services to the 28th Bomb Wing and its subordinate units. This section's goal is to assist in determining the most efficient and effective use of manpower resources through development of objective manpower standards, Management Advisory Studies, Productivity Enhancement Programs and other manpower and organization activities.

AIRMAN AND FAMILY READINESS CENTER

TRICARE

Prime: While mandatory for active duty, family members of active duty and retirees under the age of 65 are encouraged to take advantage of this little-to-no-cost option. A Primary Care Provider will be assigned to you and your family and will work to ensure your overall well-being. If the type of care required is not offered by the PCP, he or she will place a referral for you or your family member to see a specialist in the TRICARE civilian network.

Standard: TRICARE Standard is available to family members and retirees. This option is the most costly, however, it provides for the greatest flexibility when seeing providers. Speak with a TRICARE Services Representative, located in the TRICARE Service Center, for more information and to determine if TRICARE Standard is the right health care choice.

Extra: Part of the TRICARE Standard option, TRICARE Extra offers a lower cost share when family members see TRICARE network civilian health care providers and facilities. Speak with a TRICARE Services Representative, located in the TRICARE Service Center, for more information and to determine if TRICARE Standard is the right choice.

Importance of DEERS: Much of the Military Health System's information concerning active-duty members, retirees, and their families is retrieved from the Defense Enrollment Eligibility and Reporting System maintained by the Military Personnel Element. Verify this information is accurate and up-to-date to ensure referrals and other health-related correspondence is sent to you in a timely manner — personnel should review their DEERS information for accuracy every three months.

TRICARE BRIEFINGS

TRICARE offers many briefings to the beneficiary community to include the Newcomers' briefing, Heart Link briefing, Medical Right Start briefings, reunion briefings, pre-deployment briefings and various briefings at squadron commander's calls.

Heart Link: The Heart Link briefing is offered at the Airman and Family Readiness Center and is focused more toward family members.

Medical Right Start: This briefing is mandatory for all newly-assigned active-duty members, and family members are highly encouraged to attend. It is offered on the first and third Tuesday of every month in conjunction with the 28th Bomb Wing Right Start program.

Commander's Calls: TRICARE is always available to brief at Commander's Calls to update members on new TRICARE policies or services.

services and support to active duty military and civilian personnel across the Air Force, and travel pay services and support to reserve component military and civilian personnel through a centralized processing center and a full service contact center.

DETACHMENT 226, AIR FORCE OFFICE OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS

Within the jurisdiction of the United States Air Force, the Air Force Office of Special Investigations is the single agency responsible for the investigation of major criminal, fraud and counter-intelligence matters. It identifies, investigates and neutralizes such crimes as espionage, terrorism, fraud, larceny, murder, assault, sex offenses and all other major criminal activities that threaten the people and resources of the Air Force and Department of Defense. AFOSI also serves a role similar to that of the U.S. Secret Service, providing personal protective services for high-ranking Air Force officials and other dignitaries.

DETACHMENT 8, 372ND TRAINING SQUADRON

Detachment 8 is one of 46 Air Education and Training Command training detachments throughout the world. They provide formal training for the B-1B and Aerospace Ground Equipment maintenance community, supporting Ellsworth, Dyess, Tinker, Wright-Patterson and Edwards Air Force Bases. The detachment currently employs 21 people at Ellsworth and trains more than 1,400 maintainers annually.

DEFENSE SECURITY SERVICE

The Defense Security Service, formerly known as the Defense Investigative Service, plays a crucial role in safeguarding our nation's security. As a Department of Defense agency, DSS makes its contribution to the National Security Community by conducting personnel security investigations, providing industrial security products and services, and offering comprehensive security education and training to Department of Defense and other government entities. To complement its three primary missions — the Personnel Security Investigations Program, the Industrial Security Program, and the Security Education, Training and Awareness Program — DSS offers the unique advantage of integrating counterintelligence into its core security disciplines through our training programs, policy development and operational support to our field elements.

NORTHWEST AREA AUDIT OFFICE, AIR FORCE AUDIT AGENCY

The mission of the Air Force Audit Agency is to provide all levels of Air Force management with independent, objective and quality audit services that include reviewing and promoting economy, effectiveness and efficiency of operations; evaluating programs and activities and assisting management in achieving results; and assessing and improving stewardship and the accuracy of financial reporting. The AFAA operating location at Ellsworth is independent of the base and is a sub-office of the Minot Air Force Base, N.D. Audit Office, which reports directly to the Northwest Area Audit Office at McChord Air Force Base, Wash.

DEFENSE REUTILIZATION AND MARKETING OFFICE

The Defense Reutilization and Marketing Service office is a satellite DRMO. Central DRMO is located at Fort Riley, Kan., and maintains administrative and operational responsibility for this site in South Dakota. The primary mission of the DRMO is the receipt of all excess, surplus and recyclable property from Department of Defense activities in South Dakota. Redistribution of this property to federal government agencies and authorized state and or local recipients is the number one objective of the DRMO.

AMERICAN RED CROSS

The American Red Cross offers assistance in emergency communication, personal and family problems, information and referral to active-duty members and their families. The ARC has volunteers at the base clinic, legal office and library, in addition to others who volunteer their time in health and safety services — CPR, first aid, water safety and an active youth program.

HOUSING

HOUSING

The Ellsworth Housing Office hours of operation are 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. During non-duty hours, current on-base information is available at <http://www.ellsworth.af.mil> and off-base housing information is available at <http://www.AHRN.com>.

MILITARY FAMILY HOUSING

As of August 2011, military family housing at Ellsworth AFB totals 1,111 housing units (283 are government owned and 828 are from a private company — Hunt Building Corporation). Hunt is responsible for maintaining the units. Individuals living in that area enter into a private lease agreement with Hunt if they choose to live there.

The government owned housing units are divided into two housing areas. Prairie View Estates, constructed in 2004, is located on base and has 40 four-bedroom units and 60 three-bedroom units for junior NCOs. The second housing area is Rushmore Heights, constructed in 2005 through 2009, has 131 four-bedroom units for junior NCOs, 14 four-bedroom units for senior NCOs, 17 four-bedroom units for company grade officers, five prestige four-bedroom units for chief master sergeants, seven three-bedroom units and five four-bedroom units for field grade officers. The last four homes in this housing area are four-bedroom units for senior officers. Centennial Estates housing area was constructed in 1990 and is section 801 "Build Lease" totaling 828 units, occupied by all grades.

The remaining 283 government-owned units will be conveyed to private ownership on or about January 2012 as part of the Military Housing Privatization initiative. The project owner will be tasked to build an additional 214 units.

All active-duty military members who are eligible for BAH at the “with” dependent rate are eligible for military family housing. This includes members who have dependents in their own right. To apply for housing, servicemembers must complete a housing application form (DD Form 1746) either at their current base’s housing office, to be forwarded to the Ellsworth housing office, or by stopping at the Ellsworth Housing Office upon their arrival. Completing an advanced application is recommended. Waiting lists are established for all categories of housing in accordance with current policy and directives. Within these designations, waiting lists are maintained by date of application and number of bedrooms the military member is eligible for based on grade, number of dependents and the ages of their children. Inquiries regarding status on the waiting list or approximate waiting times for housing can be answered by calling (605) 385-2570.

OFF-BASE HOUSING

To assist newcomers or individuals looking for off-base housing, the Ellsworth Housing Office has a website, <http://www.ahrn.com>, with the most current rentals on the market. The listings on this website contain information such as size of house, whether furnished or not, location, pictures, pet requirements, cost, contact numbers, security deposit or lease required.

When renting, most landlords require the first month’s rent and entire security deposit in advance. Also, most rentals require a minimum security deposit of $150; however, under South Dakota law, a deposit of up to one month’s rent is legal.

In 1968, the Congress declared a national policy of providing fair housing throughout the United States. This law makes discrimination, which is based on race, color, religion, sex or national origin, illegal in regard to sale or rental of most housing. The housing office is responsible for maintaining equal opportunity standards in the off-base housing program. Advise them promptly of any cases of actual or suspected discrimination.

To assist those who might be interested in purchasing a home in the Rapid City area, the housing office has select sales listings of homes and mobile homes provided by military personnel leaving the area, participating members of the Rapid City Multiple Listing Service, area independent realtors, and cooperating individuals in the local community. Veterans’ Administration eligibility applications, as well as names, addresses and phone numbers of banks, savings and loan organizations and others who can negotiate home loans — VA, FHA or conventional — are also available.

DORMS

Central Dormitory Management hours of operation are 7 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, Central dorm management personnel can be reached at (605) 385-2567 during normal duty hours. There are eight hospitality suites available for single, unaccompanied Airmen, E-4 and below, who arrive at Ellsworth. Dorm rooms may be pre-issued (when available) to sponsors of inbound personnel.

Unaccompanied housing at Ellsworth is available for all single Airmen in the ranks of E-1 through E-4. There are 732 rooms in six dormitories, with all rooms being single occupancy. Each dorm has one game room (card and pool tables, dart boards), one kitchen, one laundry room, and at least four TV rooms (high definition cable and WiFi are installed in each first floor day room). Individual dorm rooms are pre-wired for cable television, high-speed cable Internet service, and phone service. Individual room cable, phone, and Internet service are provided by local vendors. Members must contract with local cable company for in-room cable service. Dorm managers can provide contact information and assist with questions regarding private cable service.

HISTORY

ELLSWORTH AIR FORCE BASE

The U.S. War Department established Rapid City Army Air Base as a training location for B-17 Flying Fortress crews, Jan. 2, 1942. From September 1942, when its military runways first opened, until mission needs changed in July 1945, the field's instructors taught thousands of pilots, navigators, radio operators and gunners from nine heavy bombardment groups and numerous smaller units. All training focused on the Allied drive to overthrow the Axis powers in Europe.

After World War II, the base briefly trained weather reconnaissance and combat squadrons using P-61 Black Widow, P-38 Lightning, P-51 Mustang and B-25 Mitchell aircraft. Those missions soon ended, however, and Rapid City Army Air Field temporarily shut down from September 1946 through March 1947. When operations resumed in 1947, the base was a new United States Air Force asset. The primary unit assigned to Rapid City Air Force Base was the new 28th Bombardment Wing — flying the B-29 Superfortress.

The installation changed names a few more times during its early years. In January 1948, Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Carl A. Spaatz renamed it Weaver Air Force Base in honor of Brig. Gen. Walter R. Weaver, one of the pioneers in the development of the Air Force. In June of that year, however, in response to overwhelming public appeals, Secretary of the Air Force Stuart Symington returned it to its previous name. The base was also declared a permanent installation in early 1948.

Shortly after additional runway improvements, in July 1949, the 28th BMW began conversion from B-29s to the huge B-36 Peacemaker. In April 1950, the Air Staff reassigned the base from 15th Air Force to 8th Air Force.

The base experienced one of its worst peacetime tragedies in March 1953, when an RB-36 and its entire crew of 23 crashed in Newfoundland while returning from a routine exercise in Europe. On June 13, 1953, President Dwight D. Eisenhower made a personal visit to dedicate the base in memory of Brig. Gen. Richard E. Ellsworth, commander of the 28th Strategic Reconnaissance Wing, who lost his life in that accident.

Military organizations periodically upgrade manpower and machines from time to time to meet new national security requirements. The organizations on Ellsworth Air Force Base were no exception. Headquarters Strategic Air Command reassigned the 28th BMW from 8th Air Force back to 15th Air Force in October 1955. Approximately one year later, SAC set plans in motion to replace the 28th BMW's B-36s with the new all-jet B-52 Stratofortress. The last B-36 left Ellsworth May 29, 1957 and the first B-52 Stratofortress arrived 16 days later. In 1958, all base units came under the command of the 821st Strategic Aerospace Division, headquartered at Ellsworth.

In October 1960, Ellsworth entered the "Space Age," with the activation of the 850th Strategic Missile Squadron, initially assigned to the 28th BMW. For more than a year, this squadron prepared for the emplacement of Titan I intercontinental ballistic missiles, which finally arrived in 1962, shortly after the activation of the 44th Strategic Missile Wing in January. At that time, Headquarters SAC also named the 44th SMW as host wing at Ellsworth.

Titan's lifespan was short in western South Dakota. In July 1962, SAC had effectively rendered it obsolete by activating the 66th Strategic Missile Squadron, the first of three such units slated to operate 150 Minuteman I ICBMs under the 44th SMW. The 67th Strategic Missile Squadron joined the 44th in August, followed by the 68th Strategic Missile Squadron in September 1962.

On June 1, 1971, SAC inactivated the 821st Strategic Aerospace Division. By October of that year, an upgraded Minuteman II also replaced earlier missiles.

Ellsworth soon became known as "The Showplace of SAC" as it continued to fight the Cold War by maintaining two legs of America's strategic triad: strategic bombers and ICBMs. It carried out these vital missions for more than 15 years with relatively little change. Then, the 1980s brought many new challenges. In 1986 the base and the 28th BMW made extensive preparations to phase out the aging B-52 fleet and become the new home for the advanced B-1B Lancer. Contractors completed new, unaccompanied enlisted dormitories in March, a new security police group headquarters in October and gave Ellsworth's 13,497 foot runway a much-needed facelift. In addition, they completed new aircraft maintenance facilities for the complex new bird. The last 28th BMW B-52H left in early 1986. In January 1987, the wing received the first of 35 B-1B bombers.

The 12th Air Division moved to Ellsworth July 15, 1988. This organization was responsible for training B-1B, transient B-52 and the 28th BMW's KC-135 Stratotanker aircrews. Headquarters SAC activated a third wing, the 99th Strategic Weapons Wing, at Ellsworth Aug. 10, 1989. This wing assumed primary responsibility for B-1B and B-52 advanced aircrew training.

Internationally, the destruction of the Berlin Wall in October 1989, symbolized the imminent demise of the Soviet Union over the next several months. During this transition, the Air Force also had to reshuffle its organizations and resources to meet the diminishing, although shifting, threat. Changes came quickly.

On Jan. 3, 1990, SAC redesignated the 812th Combat Support Group as the 812th Strategic Support Wing, which, for a short time, became Ellsworth's fourth wing. The 812th SSW consolidated all combat support activities into one organization. On July 31, 1990, SAC replaced the 12th Air Division with the Strategic Warfare Center, which provided operational command and administrative control over Ellsworth's subordinate units. Then, as part of SAC's intermediate headquarters and base-level reorganization plan, Sept. 1, 1991 SAC renamed the 28th BMW the 28th Wing, the 44th SMW the 44th Wing and the 99th SWW the 99th Tactics and Training Wing. Ten days later, SAC inactivated both the SWC and the 812th SSW. Once again, the 28th became Ellsworth's host organization and it soon absorbed all previous 812th SSW functions. It was also during this period that, in acknowledgment of the elimination of the Warsaw Pact, the Secretary of Defense ordered alert operations to stand down. The decades-long Cold War was over.

On June 1, 1992, as part of the first major reorganization since the creation of USAF, the Air Force inactivated SAC and assigned Ellsworth's organizations (including a renamed 28th Bomb Wing) to the newly activated Air Combat Command. After less than a year under the new command, the wing's mission changed from that of strategic bombardment to one of worldwide conventional munitions delivery. The mission of the 99th Tactics and Training Wing (later to become the 99th Wing) also continued, albeit slightly modified to fit the requirements of the new force concept. The 44th Missile Wing, however, had ably accomplished its deterrence mission. The wing permanently pulled the first missile from its silo Dec. 3, 1991. The first launch control center shut down April 6, 1992. Deactivation of the entire missile complex ended in April 1994. In keeping with its patriotic Minuteman tradition, the 44th Missile Wing formally inactivated July 4, 1994.

In March 1994, Ellsworth welcomed the 34th Bomb Squadron, a geographically separated unit awaiting airfield upgrades before it could return to its parent organization, the 366th BW, at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho. The 34th's B-1Bs are part one of the Air Force's composite wings, which also include F-15 Eagles, F-16 Fighting Falcons and KC-135s.

Also during 1994, the Air Force selected Ellsworth as the exclusive location from which to conduct a Congressionally-mandated operational readiness assessment of the B-1B, known locally as "Dakota Challenge." After six months of hard work, under both peacetime and simulated wartime conditions, the 28th BW and Ellsworth passed the test "with flying colors" and proved the B-1 to be a reliable and capable weapons system — the mainstay of America's heavy bomber fleet for years to come.

In 1995, the 99th Wing also departed for a new assignment at Nellis Air Force Base, Nev., although a small contingent formerly attached to that wing remained behind to continue bomber tactics training and radar munitions scoring from a handful of dispersed detachments. The year also saw the inactivation of one of Ellsworth's oldest units, the 77th Bomb Squadron. While the unit (as an administrative entity) departed to save Air Force dollars for development of new follow-on B-1 munitions, the organization's aircraft remained at Ellsworth (in a flying reserve status) under the able care of its sister unit, the 37th Bomb Squadron.

A reversal of fortune occurred in early 1996 when on March 26 an announcement was made that the 77th Bomb Squadron would soon return to Ellsworth. On April 1, 1997, the squadron again activated at Ellsworth as the geographically-separated 34th Bomb Squadron completed its transfer to its home at the 366th Wing, Mountain Home AFB, Idaho. By June 1998, the 77th had six of its B-1Bs out of the reconstitution reserve. This number balances those lost by the 34th Bomb Squadron.

In March 1999, the Air Force announced a reorganization plan that made Ellsworth AFB and the 28th BW partners in the new Expeditionary Air Force concept. The 28th BW was named a lead wing in the EAF. Under this plan, the 77th Bomb Squadron gained six additional B-1Bs, and Ellsworth AFB gained about 100 more military personnel. The expeditionary forces helped the Air Force respond quickly to any worldwide crisis while making life more predictable for military members.

OPERATION ALLIED FORCE

It wasn't too long before Ellsworth and the 28th Bomb Wing were taking the lead in the EAF concept. Five B-1Bs from the 28th Bomb Wing joined NATO forces in Operation Allied Force and began striking military targets in Kosovo April 1, 1999. By the end of the conflict in June 1999, B-1Bs from Ellsworth flew 100 combat missions and dropped more than 1,260 tons of Mk-82 general-purpose bombs. Once again the B-1B and Team Ellsworth proved itself invaluable to the security of our national interests.

OPERATION ENDURING FREEDOM

After the events of Sept. 11, 2001, Team Ellsworth once again answered the call by deploying a number of B-1s in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Aircraft from the 37th Bomb Squadron at Ellsworth AFB joined additional B-1s from the 34th Bomb Squadron at Mountain Home AFB and formed the 34th Expeditionary Bomb Squadron. This squadron, along with other elements from Ellsworth, deployed to Diego Garcia and joined the 28th Air Expeditionary Wing where they recorded an impressive record against the terrorist factions. Their combat mission effectiveness was greater than 95 percent and they flew 5 percent of the total strike aircraft missions. They dropped 39 percent of the total tonnage of bombs, which was more than any other platform. The amount of ordnance dropped was tremendous. During their deployment, the 28th Bomb Squadron dropped 2,974 JDAMs, 1,471 Mk-82, 135 Mk-84 and 70 CBU-87 bombs. Currently, the 28th Bomb Wing and personnel from Ellsworth Air Force Base continue to be the lead wing for EAF 8, and Ellsworth personnel continue to prepare for ongoing deployments in support of operations around the globe.

34TH BOMB SQUADRON REPLACES THE 77TH BOMB SQUADRON

On Sept. 19, 2001 the 34th Bomb squadron joined the Ellsworth team and arrived from Mountain Home AFB, Idaho. Due to a drawdown in the number of B-1 aircraft in the Air Force inventory, the 77th Bomb Squadron at Ellsworth was inactivated and the Thunderbirds of the 34th Bomb Squadron were moved to Ellsworth to take their place.

ELLSWORTH LANDS REMOTELY PILOTED AIRCRAFT MISSION

U.S. Air Force officials announced its decision June 21, 2010 to bring the MQ-9 Reaper Ground Control Station (GCS) to Ellsworth. The installation will gain about 280 civilian and military personnel to operate MQ-9 Reapers. While the squadron operating the aircraft will be based at Ellsworth, the aircraft will remain overseas, supporting continuing operations. The MQ-9 squadron at Ellsworth, designated Detachment 1, was activated April 1, 2011, and will fly its first combat air patrol in May 2012.

OPERATION ODYSSEY DAWN

In March 2011, B-1B Lancers from the 28th Bomb Wing launched from their home station of Ellsworth Air Force Base to strike targets in Libya in support of Operation Odyssey Dawn. With less than two days from first notice to takeoff, Ellsworth Airmen generated several aircraft and hundreds of weapons to provide the combat configuration needed halfway across the globe. This mission marked the first time the B-1 fleet has launched combat sorties from the continental United States to strike targets overseas.

The men and women of Ellsworth AFB draw from past experiences to plan for the future. As they embrace the core values of "Integrity First, Service Before Self and Excellence in All We Do," they stand ready to provide global power for America.

LOCAL AREA

RAPID CITY

In 1874, a flow of settlers were lured into the Black Hills by the discovery of gold. Through the gold rush, industries such as logging, ranching and farming began to grow.

Rapid City was founded in 1876. It's the county seat of Pennington County and is located about 30 miles from the western border of South Dakota, midway north and south, in the eastern foothills of the Black Hills. Spring-fed Rapid Creek flows through the city, paralleling the main business streets. Rapid City is the transportation center of western South Dakota. The city's elevation is about 3,240 feet above sea level.

Current estimates from the Rapid City Chamber of Commerce's Economic Development Department place Rapid City's population at approximately 67,100. The city area encompasses 44.7 square miles, and is the largest in the state. The city's 200-mile retail trade area has a total population of nearly 460,000.

The climate is semi-arid, with excellent flying conditions, moderate winters, cool summer nights and low humidity. Average temperature is 46.6 degrees with an average annual precipitation of 55.8 inches.

Local industry includes tourism, stock raising, agriculture, meat packing, electronics, mobile home manufacturing, computer components, state fish hatchery, creameries, and cement and concrete product manufacturing.

AGRICULTURE

Agriculture is the lifeblood of South Dakota. It is the state's number one industry and the number two industry in western South Dakota. For the farmers and ranchers who work the land, it is more than a job, it is a career and a way of life. Although the way things are done have changed, agriculture remains the common thread linking the citizens, businesses and communities of our area.

The rural Rapid City area is home to more than 650 working farms, making up 1,185,055 acres of farm land and producing more than 280,000 acres in cropland. The average size farm in this area is approximately 1,800 acres. Western South Dakota's number one harvested crop is wheat.

Livestock production in western South Dakota is in vast abundance. The top three products are beef cattle, sheep and bison. There are approximately 67,000 head of beef cattle in Pennington County alone.

NATURAL RESOURCES

The Black Hills are an emerald-green oasis towering above the endless sea of prairie that surrounds them. Ponderosa pine dominates the Black Hills forest along with the Black Hills spruce (South Dakota's state tree), trembling aspens, paper birch and other bottomland hardwood trees. Elevations reach as high as 7,300 feet, and while the geography and terrain are tremendously varied, it is invariably breathtaking. Wildlife is diverse and abundant, ranging from impressive trout fisheries to big game species like elk, bison, whitetail and mule deer and bighorn sheep. In many ways, the Black Hills are a mixing ground of east and west, of mountains and plains, and of moist and arid climates.

AREA CULTURE AND BACKGROUND

Ellsworth is the largest employer in the West River region, and the second-largest in the state. In 2010, there were more than 1,100 local civilians working on base. The total economic impact, in a five-county area, was nearly $331.4 million in fiscal year 2010. Communities within close proximity to the base are Rapid City and Box Elder.

However, this is only a small part of the contribution the Airmen of Ellsworth make to the broader community.

Ellsworth Airmen and the 28th Bomb Wing are not just next to a great community, we are part of a great community. Our over 9,000 Airmen and family members are dedicated to playing an active role in the welfare of the broader Black Hills — far beyond just jobs and payroll. In 2010, Ellsworth Airmen volunteered more than 37,000 hours on and off base helping the local community. Some of their contributions include coaching children's sports, working with Honor Flight, the Make-a-Wish Foundation and many other local charities.

Today, South Dakota boasts one of the nation's most stable economies. The presence of Mount Rushmore, Crazy Horse Mountain, numerous other attractions and the scenic beauty of the Black Hills make tourism a major industry, particularly in the summer months. Mining, logging and agriculture also contribute to the coffers of one of the few remaining states to run at a budget surplus.

Perhaps because of the long and colorful history of the area, most citizens foster a strong sense of both community and pride. Local city and town governments reflect this attitude.

The political structure of the area is designed to meet the needs of growing communities. The "good neighbor" concept, established in old West traditions, seems to be a governing principle for an area where people can still pay by check — with no identification required. City and county government is active, highly participative and addresses issues ranging from law enforcement to environmental concerns.

Cowboy boots, pickup trucks, high plains grassland and pine-covered mountains may give Rapid City a western flair and easy-going lifestyle, but living or visiting Rapid City also creates a striking atmosphere for music, art and drama.

The arts are an important part of the community and are growing strong thanks to dedicated support from civic-minded volunteers, educators and a government interested in supporting the variety the arts can add to city life.

Rapid City and the Black Hills area have a thriving arts and culture scene that encompasses the values and history of our region. Rapid City's premier arts center, the Dahl is a public facility owned by the City of Rapid City. Since it opened in 1974, The Dahl has been the center for contemporary visual arts, arts education and performing arts. The Dahl is managed by the Rapid City Arts Council, which is one of the oldest and most respected arts councils in South Dakota. The mission of the Arts Council is to bring art and people together to strengthen the community.

The Allied Arts Fund provides operation and promotional support for A Cappella Showcase, Bells of the Hills, Black Hills Chamber Music Society, Black Hills Community Theatre, Black Hills Dance Theatre, Black Hills Playhouse, Clack Hills Symphony Orchestra, Dakota Artists Guild, Dakota Choral Union, Rapid City Arts Council, and Rapid City Concert Association. In addition, they provide funding for other non-profit grassroots community art projects. Together, all these groups represent the most active and established arts organizations in the Black Hills and provide over 1,200 culturally enriching events each year.

- A Cappella Showcase presents area singers and musicians in their area concerts.
- The Bells of the Hills presents two hand bell concerts annually.
- Black Hills Chamber Music Society presents a five-concert series of chamber music for the public each year, and sponsors a music enrichment program for children in the Black Hills Children's Home.
- Black Hills Community Theatre reaches out to everyone in the Black Hills providing them with the opportunity to learn, share, and experience the performing arts through participation, classes, or being an audience member at quality theatrical productions in the Black Hills. They do this by producing five Main Stage shows each year, one Dinner Theatre Fundraiser, four Children's Theatre productions, a Senior Theatre program that performs at various senior centers, and housing complexes throughout the region, and theatre project development with the Suzie Cappa Players of the Black Hills Workshop.

- Black Hills Dance Theatre provides quality in dance education, performance and experience to audiences in the Black Hills region, and presents The Nutcracker Ballet biennially and sponsors a performance from a nationally acclaimed dance company every year.
- Black Hills Playhouse presents a five-play summer season, produces Storybook Island Theatre productions and provides outreach through the Children's Theatre of South Dakota Program.
- Black Hills Symphony Orchestra presents a five-concert series, and co-sponsors the Young Artist Competition with the Black Hills Symphony League.
- Dakota Artists Guild provides visual arts (gallery without walls) exhibit at Hill's Diamonds, First United Methodist Church, and other locations in the community.
- Dakota Choral Union performs annual series of four concerts with its non-auditioned choir.
- Rapid City Arts Council presents, promotes and preserves the arts through education, exhibits, performances, and collections.
- Rapid City Concert Association presents an annual concert series featuring renowned, nationally-known artists. Formed in 1937, it is Rapid City's oldest arts organization.

BOX ELDER

HISTORY OF BOX ELDER

The City of Box Elder serves as the gateway to the Black Hills. In the late 1800s, the future site of Box Elder was a fertile valley, luring settlers west with untold promise. Lone Tree, a few miles east of Box Elder, was originally a stop for the covered wagons and horsemen coming to the Black Hills from Fort Pierre on the Black Hills Stage and Wagon Road. Box Elder was born as a whistle stop town in 1907 when the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad built a track from Wall to Rapid City. The new town was named after the Box Elder trees which grew along the head waters of the creek that flows through the valley. Box Elder was officially incorporated as a city in 1964 during the Cold War expansion of Ellsworth Air Force Base. Today, Box Elder is home to more than 8,000 people, and is one of South Dakota's fastest growing cities. The City of Box Elder, nestled between Ellsworth and Rapid City, offers city convenience with a small town atmosphere.

LOCAL SIGHTS

BLACK HILLS

In 1775, Standing Buffalo, an Oglala Sioux, discovered an area called Paha Sapa, meaning "mountains that are black." The Black Hills were considered the center of the universe and sacred by the Sioux Indians and an oasis in the prairie by the early settlers. Seen from a distance, the dense stands of pine and fir make the hills appear black against the western sky, hence the name.

Known for the gold that lured the early explorers and prospectors, the Black Hills now lure the resident and traveler to a wealth of natural wonders, more valuable than the prospectors' gold ever was.

Within the broad confines of the Black Hills National Forest, you'll find Custer State Park, two national monuments, Wind Cave and Devil's Tower; one national park, Jewel Cave; one national memorial, Mount Rushmore; numerous sparkling lakes and hundreds of miles of beautiful hiking trails. Fifty miles to the east, carved from the eroded remains of an ancient sea floor is the Badlands National Park.

WIND CAVE

According to Sioux legend, Wind Cave is the place where the buffalo were blown from under the earth to feed the Lakota people. In reality, changing atmospheric pressure causes a constant wind to blow from the cave that will chill the unwary who fail to bring a jacket or sweater — even in the summer.

DEVIL'S TOWER

Devil's Tower is truly a natural marvel and one that was not built as a movie prop for "Close Encounters of the Third Kind." Just across the Wyoming border, Devil's Tower looms over the Belle Fourche River where antelope and prairie dogs roam its base. For the truly adventurous and qualified, a quick climb up the tower with ropes and pitons will verify that no little green men are still around.

JEWEL CAVE NATIONAL MONUMENT

Jewel Cave National Monument is reached by taking an elevator several hundred feet straight down, to follow the twists and turns of a cavern that is still not completely explored.

BLACK HILLS NATIONAL FOREST

Surrounding all this is the Black Hills National Forest, which offers picnic and camping areas, hiking and riding trails and fishing and boating on the numerous streams and lakes.

STURGIS

West of Rapid City is Sturgis, which annually hosts hot air balloons participating in the race held each year. Sturgis also hosts the annual Sturgis Bike Week, the second-largest motorcycle rally in the United States.

SPEARFISH

The city of Spearfish, located northwest of Rapid City, offers a scenic driving route. Spearfish Canyon has several scenic natural wonders such as Bridal Veil and Roughlock Falls.

CUSTER STATE PARK

Custer State Park, in the central Black Hills, is where the largest herd of wild buffalo in the nation roam free. A wildlife trail takes you through the area where the main herd grazes, and though seemingly placid, several tons of charging buffalo can go anywhere they want. If you want a close look, do it with camera or binoculars. If more refined recreation is desired, one can stay at one of the four lodges that serve the park.

BADLANDS NATIONAL PARK

Fifty miles east of Rapid City, away from the trees and hills, one can find a different type of beauty in the erosion-carved spires of the Badlands National Park. Carved from the eroded mud of an ancient sea floor, the Badlands were so named by Native Americans and settlers for their unsuitability as habitat and the difficulties encountered in traveling through them.

DINOSAUR PARK

Dinosaur Park, located on Skyline Drive in Rapid City, is home to the gigantic cement dinosaurs that depict the past. From Dinosaur Park, one has a magnificent view of Rapid City and the Black Hills. For more information, call (605) 343-8687.

MOUNT RUSHMORE NATIONAL MEMORIAL

A quick 45 minutes from Rapid City sits the crown jewel of the Black Hills, Mount Rushmore National Memorial. Carved from the granite of the mountain, the stone faces of Washington, Jefferson, Roosevelt and Lincoln stare out across the Black Hills as a tribute to the men and women who helped make America what it is today. The memorial is free and is best seen in the mid-morning light, however, a special lighting ceremony, held from early summer to late fall, adds special meaning to the memorial. A blend of pageantry and patriotism, the ceremony lights the memorial against the night sky.

CRAZY HORSE MONUMENT

About 10 miles away on a straight line — unfortunately, about 25 miles by road — another mountain sculpture is taking shape as Chief Crazy Horse emerges from the granite. Conceived on a vast scale, the sculpture is not on the mountain, it is the mountain. With entirely private funding, the sheer magnitude of work required and the vagaries of weather, it's not surprising that no completion date is scheduled. Still, slowly but surely, the face of the Lakota Chief, his outstretched arm and the head and neck of his horse are taking shape.

DEADWOOD

Further north, the old frontier town of Deadwood still thrives on its legends and the ghosts of Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane and Poker Alice still haunt the town. At Saloon #10, the chair that Wild Bill was sitting in when he was gunned down holding the dead man's hand, aces and eights, hangs over the entrance. Both Wild Bill and Calamity Jane are buried in historic Mt. Moriah Cemetery, which overlooks the town.

We are not alone.

There's a wonderful world around us. Full of fascinating places. Interesting people. Amazing cultures. Important challenges. But sadly, our kids are not getting the chance to learn about their world. When surveys show that half of America's youth cannot locate India or Iraq on a map, then we have to wonder what they do know about their world. That's why we created MyWonderfulWorld.org. It's part of a free National Geographic-led campaign to give your kids the power of global knowledge. Go there today and help them succeed tomorrow. Start with our free parent and teacher action kits. And let your kids begin the adventure of a lifetime.

It's a wonderful world. Explore!
