

Special Needs

Smart Book: Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Systems Naiveté	3
Isolation	4
Difficult Transitions	4
Discrimination	5
Extended Deployments	5
Chapter One:
Department of Defense Responsibility to Military Families with Special Needs	7
1.1 Features of the Military Special Needs Community	7
1.2 Background of Military Programs and Services for Special Needs Families	8
1.3 Legislation and DoD Policy Governing Civil Rights of Exceptional Family Members	9
1.3.1 Rehabilitation Act of 1973 – Section 504	9
1.3.2 DoD Directive 1020.1	10
1.3.3 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)	10
1.4 Legislation and DoD Policy Governing Education of Exceptional Family Members	11
1.4.1 Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)	11
1.4.2 DoD Instructions 1342.12 and 1010.13	13
1.4.3 Vocational and Technical Education Act of 1998	13
1.5 Service Programs for Special Needs	13
Chapter Two:
Identification and Assignments of Military Personnel with Exceptional Family
Members	15
2.1 DoD Policy	15
2.1.1 Assignment Process for Sponsors with EFMs	16
2.1.2 Pre-established Programs in Overseas Military Communities	17
2.1.3 Areas of Responsibility for Military Medical Departments	18
2.1.4 Overseas Assignment of Civilian Employees with EFMs	18
2.2 Overview of Army Procedures	19
2.2.1 Screening	19
2.2.2 Enrollment Process	20
2.2.3 Assignment Considerations	21
2.2.4 Sources of Information about Army EFMP	22

2.3 Overview of Navy Procedures	23
2.3.1 Screening	23
2.3.2 Enrollment Process	24
2.3.3 Assignment Considerations	25
2.3.4 Sources of Information about Navy EFMP	25
2.4 Overview of Marine Corps Procedures	26
2.4.1 Screening	26
2.4.2 Enrollment Process	26
2.4.3 Assignment Considerations	27
2.4.4 Sources of Information about Marine Corps EFMP	27
2.5 Overview of Air Force Procedures	28
2.5.1 Screening	28
2.5.2 Enrollment Process	29
2.5.3 Assignment Considerations	30
2.5.4 Sources of Information about Air Force SNIAC	30
2.6 Identification and Assignment Challenges	31
2.6.1 Reluctance to Enroll	31
2.6.2 Misperceptions about Benefits of Enrollment	32
2.6.3 Reassignments, Deferrals, Deletions and Early Returns	32
2.6.4 Reserve and National Guard Enrollment	33
2.6.5 Operational Readiness	33

Chapter Three:

Education of Exceptional Family Members	35
3.1 Early Intervention from Birth to Three Years of Age	35
3.1.1 Responsibility for Early Intervention Programs	35
3.1.2 Eligibility for Early Intervention Services	36
3.1.3 Funding for Early Intervention	37
3.1.4 Screening and Referral for EIS	37
3.1.5 Service Coordination	38
3.1.6 Evaluation Process	39
3.1.7 Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP)	39
3.1.8 IFSP Services	40
3.1.9 Early Intervention Obstacles	40
3.1.10 Support for Military Families of Infants and Toddlers with Special Needs	41
3.2 Special Education for Exceptional Family Members 3 to 21 Years of Age	42
3.2.1 Referral for Evaluation	42
3.2.2 Evaluation	43

3.2.3 Eligibility Determination	44
3.2.4 Individualized Education Program	44
3.2.5 Placement	46
3.2.6 Related Services	47
3.2.7 Transition Planning	47
3.2.8 Special Education Hurdles for Relocating Families	48
3.2.9 Special Education Rights and Responsibilities	49
3.2.10 Support for Military Families with Special Education Students	51
3.3 Education and Training for Disabled Adults	52
3.3.1 Vocational Rehabilitation	52
3.3.2 Post-Secondary Education	53

Chapter Four:

Health Care and Financial-Aid Benefits for Military Family Members with Disabilities	55
4.1 Military Health Care System (TRICARE)	55
4.1.1 TRICARE Regions	55
4.1.2 TRICARE Program Options for Active Duty Family Members	56
4.1.3 TRICARE Program Options for Retirees and their Families	57
4.1.4 Cost Comparison of TRICARE Options	57
4.2 TRICARE Benefits for Special Needs Care	58
4.2.1 ECHO	58
4.2.2 Home Health Care	61
4.2.3 Skilled Nursing Facility Care	61
4.2.4 Hospice Care	62
4.2.5 Mental Health Care	62
4.2.6 Benefit Authorizations	63
4.2.7 Case Management	63
4.3 TRICARE Information and Assistance	64
4.3.1 Beneficiary Counseling and Assistance	64
4.3.2 Debt Collection Assistance	64
4.4 IDEA-Related Services	65
4.4.1 TRICARE and IDEA	65
4.4.2 Educational Developmental and Intervention Services (EDIS)	65
4.5 Federal and State Programs with Benefits for Eligible Special Needs Families	66
4.5.1 Supplemental Security Income (SSI)	66
4.5.2 Medicaid	69
4.5.3 Medicare	69

4.5.4 Food Stamps	70
4.5.5 WIC	70
4.5.6 Title V of the Social Security Act	71

Chapter Five:

Support for Military Families with Special Needs	73
5.1 Special Needs Information and Assistance	73
5.1.1 Family Support Services	73
5.1.2 Online Information Resources	75
5.1.3 Advocacy	76
5.2 Special Needs Child Care	78
5.2.1 Center-based Care	78
5.2.2 Family Child Care Homes	79
5.2.3 Respite Care	79
5.2.4 Special Needs Child Care Information Resources	79
5.3 Special Needs Housing	80
5.3.1 Military Housing Privatization	81
5.3.2 Private Sector Housing	81
5.3.3 Housing Discrimination	82
5.3.4 Emergency Life Support and Evacuation	82
5.4 Financial Assistance	82
5.4.1 Military Aid Societies	83
5.4.2 Financial Management Information and Assistance	83
5.5 Special Needs Planning and Legal Assistance	84
5.5.1 Financial Planning	84
5.5.2 Legal Planning Actions	85
5.5.3 Survivor Benefit Plan	86
5.5.4 Quality of Life Planning	86
5.5.5 Information Resources for Special Needs Planning	87
5.6 Emotional/Spiritual Support and Coping/Parenting Skills	88
5.6.1 Counseling	88
5.6.2 Peer Support	89
5.6.3 Services for At-Risk Special Needs Families	90

5.7 Other Support Services	92
5.7.1 Adaptive Sports and Recreation Programs	92
5.7.2 Support for Families with Seriously Ill or Hospitalized Members	93
5.7.3 Assistive Technology	93
Chapter Six:
Professional Coordination, Collaboration, and Partnerships	95
6.1 Interdisciplinary Installation Programs	95
6.1.1 Special Needs Coordinating Committees	95
6.1.2 Special Needs Resource Teams	96
6.1.3 Child Find Activities	96
6.2 Collaborative Research and Training Projects	97
6.2.1 MCEC Special Education Leaders Institute (S.E.L.I.)©	97
6.2.2 MCEC Interactive Counseling Center (ICC)©	98
6.2.3 STOMP Parent Professionals Team Workshop (PPTW)	99
6.3 Model Partnership Initiatives	101
6.3.1 Hampton Roads Joint Services EFM/Special Needs Awareness Forum	101
6.3.2 Annual Special Triathlon (Kitzingen, Germany)	102
6.3.3 Camp Special Time (Camp Lejeune, NC)	104
Appendix A:
Glossary of Special Needs Terms	105
Appendix B:
Instructions for Submitting Enrollment Forms to other Military Services	117
Appendix C:
DoD Enrollment Forms	119
Appendix D:
Special Needs Resources by Disability	131
Appendix E:
State-Level Resources for Special Needs	141
Appendix F:
Index of Smart Book Resources by Topic	143
Appendix G:
Installation Special Needs Points of Contact	147
Appendix H:
Local Policy and Procedures	149

