Dear Ms. Espinel,

The Copyright Alliance has informed me of this welcome invitation from the Obama Administration to share my thoughts on my rights as a creator. I have made my living as a songwriter and producer for the last 15 years or so and have had my income significantly reduced by so-called "file sharing". While I don't believe the RIAA's approach is a long term solution I do firmly support any legislation supporting the ideals of intellectual property protection. This notion is a pillar of our country and everything it stands for, without it, innovation in art and business goes by the wayside. I hope the Obama administration continues efforts to modernize enforcement of these laws in the digital era.

thanks,

Kevin Bowe
