"The Copyright Alliance has informed me of this welcome invitation from the Obama Administration to share my thoughts on my rights as a creator."

Dear Ms.Espinell and the Obama Administration,

Recording artists, songwriters, composers, producers, authors etc. are positioned to render a service to the public. Numerous hours and diligent efforts have been contributed, for it is our occupation and duty as entertainers.

The Intellectual Property Rights are important to me because I am the sole owner of my works. Piracy and infringement affects me financially and falsifies the true Art Form that is granted to the individual. Hence, this is inequitable and throughout the years many have experienced the unlawful acts of criminals.

To protect the Rights of Creative Americans, the U.S. Government should enforce more protection through the internet, confiscate illegal email account activity, and penalize all who do not abide the Law. We are held accountable for our actions and must respect our fellow citizens for their impact to society.

Best Regards,
