

FY 2011 Homeland Security

Name of Project	Project Funding Recipient	Purpose and Amount	Location	Interest for Taxpayer
Emergency Operations Center	City of Canton	To construct an emergency operations center ($1,500,000)	Canton, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	City of D'Iberville	To construct an emergency operations center ($5,500,000)	D'Iberville, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	City of Meridian	To construct an emergency operations center ($1,000,000)	Meridian, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	City of Oxford	To construct an emergency operations center ($1,012,000)	Oxford, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	Leake County	To construct an emergency operations center ($300,000)	Carthage, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	Madison County	To construct an emergency operations center ($1,200,000)	Madison, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians	To purchase equipment and systems for an Enhanced-911 center ($100,000)	Choctaw, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	Town of Crenshaw	To construct an emergency operations center ($100,000)	Crenshaw, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Emergency Operations Center	Town of Dundee	To construct an emergency operations center ($100,000)	Dundee, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	City of Belzoni	To replace a fire truck ($474,000)	Belzoni, MS	Improved first responder capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	Mississippi Center for Police & Sheriffs	To provide smoke alarms and fire prevention education to households statewide ($412,000)	Raymond, MS	Improved emergency preparedness
Predisaster Mitigation	City of Canton	To purchase firefighting and medical equipment and upgrade firetrucks ($500,000)	Canton, MS	Improved first responder capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	City of Olive Branch	To purchase emergency response equipment ($1,276,719)	Olive Branch, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	Forrest County General Hospital	To purchase emergency generators ($3,000,000)	Hattiesburg, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	Highland Community Hospital	To purchase emergency generators ($1,100,000)	Hattiesburg, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	Leake County	To purchase emergency generators ($100,000)	Carthage, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities

FY 2011 Homeland Security

Name of Project	Project Funding Recipient	Purpose and Amount	Location	Interest for Taxpayer
Predisaster Mitigation	Lee County	To purchase an emergency warning siren system ($1,200,000)	Tupelo, MS	Improved emergency preparedness
Predisaster Mitigation	Magee General Hospital	To purchase emergency generators ($500,000)	Magee, MS	Improved emergency response capabilities
Predisaster Mitigation	Tougaloo College	To purchase an emergency warning siren system and emergency generators ($175,000)	Tougaloo, MS	Improved emergency preparedness
Southeast Regional Research Initiative (SERRI)	United States Army Corps of Engineers' Engineer Research and Development Center	To continue the SERRI Program, a competitive, cooperative research program among a diverse group of research universities in the southeast United States and federal laboratories that addresses validated Department of Homeland Security (DHS) research requirements through DHS and SERRI interaction with state and local governments to identify homeland security challenges within the region emphasizing research into those regional challenges that have national implications. ($50,000,000)	Vicksburg, MS	To develop technologies and explore best practices to combat unique security threats
Mississippi Interoperable Communications	State of Mississippi	To provide FEMA authority to release funding for interoperable communications towers constructed before June 1, 2009. ($0)	Statewide	Improved government efficiency
2010 Mississippi Disasters 90 Percent Federal Share	State of Mississippi	To reduce the financial obligations of disaster victims. ($0)	Counties Presidentially Declared a disaster by FEMA-1906-DR and FEMA-1916-DR	Improved Disaster Response
Hurricane Katrina Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Local Match Requirements	State of Mississippi	To reduce onerous federal documentation requirements. ($0)	Statewide	Improved government efficiency