

Congresswoman Lucille Roybal-Allard invites you to her U.S. Service Academies Workshop

If you are interested in receiving a prestigious university degree and becoming a military officer, consider attending a United States Service Academy.

Date: Saturday, Oct 13th

Time: 9:30am-12:00pm

Registration opens at 9:00am

Location: Downey City Library
1121 Brookshire Ave.
Downey, CA 90241

Attendees will learn about our nation's 5 service academies and how to obtain a Congressional nomination for the application.

At this free informational workshop, academy representatives and current students will be available to answer questions about eligibility requirements, cadet life, academics, athletics, and career opportunities after graduation.

Open to students, parents, and the public.

For more information call (323) 721-8790.

Twentieth Annual Congressional Student Art Competition

Win a trip to Washington, D.C., and have your artwork displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year!

This competition is open to all high school students (grades 9-12) residing in the congresswoman's Congressional District. The first place winner and their parent or guardian will receive a trip to Washington, D.C., to attend the national exhibit. For more information, please call (323) 721-8790. 2013 deadline to be determined.

Congressional Internships

My office is always accepting resumes from high school and college students interested in interning in my district or D.C. offices. Interns have the opportunity to gain firsthand knowledge about how a Congressional office provides constituent services and interacts with the community. All internships are unpaid. For more information, contact my district office at (323) 721-8790 or my Washington, D.C. office at (202) 225-1766.

U.S. Service Academy Nominations

Members of Congress have the honor of nominating qualified students for our U.S. Service Academies. These federally funded universities offer students a fully-funded bachelor's degree program in exchange for five years of military service as a commissioned officer. The deadline to apply for my nomination is Oct. 31st. Attend an informational workshop tentatively scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 13, 2012 at the Downey City Library. For more details please call (323) 721-8790.

Financial Aid & Scholarship Workshops

My office offers 2 types of workshops for groups of students and their parents:

1. FAFSA Form-Completion Workshops
2. How-To-Pay-for-College Workshops
