

The Congressional M&S CAUCUS

Congressman Randy Forbes, Founder and Chairman of the Congressional M&S Caucus is your advocate in the House of Representatives for policy impacting the M&S industry. For more information on the M&S Caucus, visit forbes.house.gov or sign up to receive the caucus monthly email newsletter on M&S efforts in Congress and across the country.

- ▶ Founded and chaired by Congressman Forbes, the Congressional Modeling and Simulation Caucus is the only caucus in Congress dedicated to showcasing M&S initiatives, promoting the M&S industry, and serving as a forum to understand the policy challenges facing this growing and versatile technology.
- ▶ Congressman Forbes introduced and passed a resolution, H.RES.487, recognizing the contribution of modeling and simulation technology as a National Critical Technology.
- ▶ Each year Congressman Forbes, in partnership with the Congressional M&S Caucus, hosts the nationally-known M&S Leadership Policy Summit in Hampton Roads and the Capitol Hill M&S Expo. The annual Summit brings together key members of the M&S community from industry, government and academia to establish annual policy goals. The Expo is the premier event on Capitol Hill to showcase advances in M&S to Members of Congress.
- ▶ Congressman Forbes has introduced bipartisan legislation, the Enhancing SIMULATION Act, to create medical M&S Centers of Excellence across America and to establish medical M&S grants for academic and professional organizations.
