Commander's Comments

Chief Master Sgt. Wayne Raymondo: Big Changes in Professional Military Education | Two very important changes to enlisted force development are about to occur. First, the Air Force is about to revolutionize Enlisted Professional Military Education (EPME). EPME-Next completely transforms the delivery of EPME. MORE...

Otis Air National Guard Base | News and Features

102nd Weathers Hurricane Sandy | On Monday Hurricane Sandy hit the east coast, leaving many areas devastated. While Massachusetts largely escaped the damage, the Massachusetts National Guard and the 102nd Intelligence Wing were ready to act no matter what happened and gained valuable experience in the process. MORE...

Otis Teen Leads by Example | The life of a teenager in a National Guard family can be filled with unique experiences that others may never know. To engage these young adults and enable them to make the most of their experiences, the Teen Council was formed. MORE...

Combined Federal Campaign Kicks Off | It's that time of year again when Airmen are encouraged to donate to the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC). The CFC is a charity campaign to raise money for non-profit organizations providing health and human service benefits around the world. This year's theme is, "Give a little, help a lot." NEW 72-HOUR AIRLINE RESERVATION CANCELLATION POLICY

Beginning October 1, 2012, any travel authorization that includes domestic air travel must be approved and ticketed at least 72 hours in advance of the scheduled flight departure to avoid airline reservations from being cancelled. This new policy applies to domestic City Pair and non-contract government flights that are either booked through DTS or through a Commercial Travel Office (CTO).

Travelers making travel plans within 72 hours of departure must have their authorization approved and tickets issued within 24 hours of creation to avoid cancellation. If making plans within 24 hours of departure, authorizations must be approved and ticketed at least 6 hours prior to flight departure time to avoid cancellation.

If your airline reservations are cancelled, your Commercial Travel Office will notify you by email or phone. For more information, including a list of frequently asked questions, go to: www.defensetravel.dod.mil.
