¶28.11 ORDER OF BUSINESS—

CONSIDERATION OF AMENDMENTS—
H.R. 7

On motion of Mr. GILMAN, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That during further consideration in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union of the bill (H.R. 7) to revitalize the national security of the United States, the provisions of House Resolution 83 of a period not to exceed ten hours for consideration under the five-minute rule be extended for twenty-six minutes;

Ordered further, That the debate time for amendments numbered 13, 21, 24, 30 or 33, or a germane modification to one of these amendments, be extended from thirty-six minutes, heretofore agreed to by order of the House, to forty-four minutes to be equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent; and

Ordered further, That the debate for the Torricelli amendment numbered 48 or amendment numbered 28 or 43 be extended from thirty-six minutes, heretofore agreed to by order of the House, to forty-four minutes to be equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent.

¶28.12 NATIONAL SECURITY
REVITALIZATION

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BE-REUTER, pursuant to House Resolution 83 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 7) to revitalize the national security of the United States.

Mr. LINDER, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, resumed the chair; and after some time spent therein,
