So the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said bill was passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

37.13 CLERK TO CORRECT ENGROSSMENT

On motion of Mr. CANADY, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That in the engrossment of the foregoing bill the Clerk be authorized to correct section numbers, cross references, and punctuation, and to make such stylistic, clerical, technical, conforming, and other changes as may be necessary to reflect the actions of the House in amending the bill.

37.14 JOB CREATION AND WAGE ENHANCEMENT

Mr. DELAY, pursuant to section 2 of House Resolution 101, called up the bill (H.R. 9) to create jobs, enhance wages, strengthen property rights, maintain certain economic liberties, decentralize and reduce the power of the Federal Government with respect to the States, localities, and citizens of the United States and to increase the accountability of Federal officials.

When said bill was considered and read twice.

Mr. DELAY, pursuant to said resolution, submitted the following amendment:

Strike all after section 1 of the bill and insert the text composed of four divisions as follows:

- (1) division A, consisting of the text of H.R. 830, as passed by the House;
(2) division B, consisting of the text of H.R. 925, as passed by the House;
(3) division C, consisting of the text of H.R. 926, as passed by the House; and
(4) division D, consisting of the text of H.R. 1022, as passed by the House.

The previous question on the motion to amend and on the bill having been ordered by said resolution.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House agree to the amendment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. HANSEN, announced that the yeas had it.

So the amendment was agreed to. The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. SPRATT moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Science with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

In Division D of H.R. 9, consisting of the text of H.R. 1022, as passed by the House, strike the following text:

Section 204. Environmental Clean-up. For the purposes of this title, any determination by a Federal agency to approve or reject any proposed or final environmental clean-up plan for a facility the costs of which are likely to exceed $5,000,000 shall be treated as a major rule subject to the provisions of this title (other than the provisions of section 205(a)(5)). As used in this section, environmental clean-up means a corrective action under the Solid Waste Disposal Act, a remedial action under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, and any other environmental restoration and waste management carried out by or on behalf of a Federal agency with respect to any substance other than municipal waste.

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. HANSEN, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. SPRATT demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said motion, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.
