40.14 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment submitted by Mr. MARKEY:

Page 28, after line 2, insert the following new section (and redesignate the succeeding sections and conform the table of contents accordingly):

SEC. 6. INAPPLICABILITY TO DERIVATIVES.

This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall not apply to any action based on an allegation of fraud in connection with the purchase or sale of a derivative instrument. For purposes of this section, the term "derivative instrument" means any financial contract or other instrument that derives its value from the value or performance of any security, currency exchange rate, or interest rate (or group or index thereof), but does not include—

(1) any security that is traded on a national securities exchange or on an automated interdealer quotation system sponsored by a securities association registered under section 15A of this title;

(2) any forward contract which has a maturity at the time of issuance not exceeding 270 days;

(3) any contract of sale of a commodity for future delivery, or any option on such a contract, traded or executed on a designated contract market and subject to regulation under the Commodity Exchange Act; or

(4) any deposit held by a financial institution.
