The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. Points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 2(l)(6) of rule XI or section 302(f), 303(a), 308(a), or 402(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed two hours equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on International Relations. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule for an initial period of ten hours. After such initial period, amendments shall be debatable only as provided in clause 6 of rule XXIII or in section 2 of this resolution. Consideration for amendment may not continue beyond 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 25, 1995. It shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on International Relations now printed in the bill modified by deleting section 2210. The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute as modified shall be considered as read. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute as modified. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.
