

U. S. Air Force — Aerospace Power For Peace . . .

FAIRCHILD Times

The FAIRCHILD TIMES is an unofficial newspaper published weekly in the interests of personnel at Fairchild Air Force Base of the Strategic Air Command. It is published by the TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY, Morgan at 9th, Davenport, Washington 99122, RA 5-3141, a private firm in no way connected with the Department of the Air Force. Opinions expressed by the publishers and writers are their own and are not to be considered an official expression by the Department of the Air Force. The appearance of advertisements in this publication including supplements and inserts, does not constitute an endorsement by the Department of the Air Force of the products or services advertised.

Vol. 22—No. 28

Spokane, Washington,

Friday, October 31, 1969

HEY FELLAS, LOOK AT THIS," cries air traffic controller crew chief Ray Daves as he sights an "unidentified" flying object on the radar screen. Witches are expected to be circling Fairchild and joining young "trick-or-treaters" as they canvass the neighborhoods in search of goodies. (U.S. Air Force Photo)