

The RSC's Spending Reduction Act

The Spending Reduction Act provides a $2.5 trillion head start toward balancing the budget. Immediate rescissions take current spending back to 2008 levels and repeal unspent stimulus funds. On October 1, 2011, the bill further reduces spending to 2006 levels and implements a hard freeze through 2021.

