4. The United States will furnish regularly in one copy a full set of the official publications of the departments, bureaus, offices, and institutions which appear in the attached list number two. The list shall be extended to include, without the need of subsequent negotiations, the publications of any new offices that the State may create in the future.

5. Confidential publications, blank forms, and circular letters not of a public nature are not to be included in this exchange.

6. So far as offices which at this time do not issue publications and which are not mentioned in the attached lists, there is the understanding that publications issued in the future by the offices shall be furnished in one copy.

7. Each party to the agreement shall bear the postal, railroad, steamship and other charges arising in its own country.

8. Both parties express their willingness, so far as possible, to expedite shipments.

9. This agreement is not concerned with the already existing exchange agreements between the various government departments, etc., of the two countries.

Upon receipt of Your Excellency's note, identical in tenor to the present communication, my Government will consider that the foregoing agreement enters into effect.
