

CONGRESSMAN RANDY FORBES

Working for America's Small Businesses

RECOGNIZED BY THE CHAMBER AND NFIB. Awarded the "Spirit of Enterprise" Award from the United States Chamber of Commerce, the "Guardian of Small Business" award from the National Federation of Independent Business and named a "Small Business Advocate" from the Small Business & Entrepreneurship Council.

MAKING THE TAX CODE MORE COMPETITIVE. Congressman Forbes believes our tax code should allow businesses to compete fairly in the marketplace and reward those who play by the rules. He supports closing loopholes and making the tax code more competitive (H.Con.Res.34)

INCREASING ACCESS TO CAPITAL FOR SMALL BUSINESSES. Congressman Forbes supported H.R. 2608 to extend key programs increasing access to capital and continuing tax incentives to allow small businesses to grow, expand, and create jobs. These programs were initially created through the Small Business Act and the Small Business Investment Act.

STANDING UP TO BIG GOVERNMENT. Working to remove onerous regulations that hinder small businesses. Congressman Forbes voted for the Regulatory Flexibility Improvements Act, H.R. 527, which forces agencies to consider how their actions affect small businesses and other entities. He also supported the Regulatory Accountability Act, H.R. 3010, to modify the rule-making process by requiring federal agencies to assess costs and benefits prior to issuing new rules.

REPEALING BURDENSOME REGULATIONS IN THE HEALTH CARE LAW
Congressman Forbes supported legislation to repeal the employer mandate and the burdensome 1099 tax reporting provisions included in the new health care law.
