<http://www.gpo.gov/pdfs/about/Vance-Cooksbio.pdf>

WHAT:

The U.S. Government Printing Office's (GPO) Acting Public Printer Davita Vance-Cooks will deliver a keynote address at the Excellence in Government conference on the topic of "Doing More with Less at the U.S. Government Printing Office." The conference is being hosted by the Government Executive Media Group. Vance-Cooks address comes at the start of Public Service Week, which is a celebration of the accomplishments and contributions GPO and Federal employees have made to our country. Vance-Cooks will discuss how GPO has been a leader in the Federal Government for doing more with less while budgets are being reduced. GPO was commended during a legislative branch appropriations hearing for setting the standard in the Federal Government for finding savings and implementing cost cutting initiatives. Vance-Cooks will share the ways GPO has reduced costs while maintaining productivity and moving forward as the digital information platform for the Federal Government.
