Congressman Wolf's Voting Record

1st SESSION, 103rd CONGRESS • JANUARY 5 - NOVEMBER 26, 1993

Dear Friend:

This report includes the votes I cast for the 1st Session of the 103rd Congress, continuing my practice of making my complete voting record available to the people of the 10th District of Virginia. While very few members of Congress publish comprehensive voting records, I have provided my voting record to 10th District citizens each year since I began serving in the House of Representatives in 1981 because I believe it is important for you to know how I have voted on all matters coming before Congress.

There were 615 roll call votes during the 1st Session of the 103rd Congress which convened on January 5 and officially adjourned on November 26, 1993. Of those 615 roll calls, I missed only three votes, for a voting attendance record of 99.5 percent. The 615 roll calls included 75 procedural votes such as approving the Speaker's journal, quorum calls and motions to adjourn. Those procedural votes are not included in this report. To assist you in understanding the terminology used in the legislative process, a glossary of terms used in this report to describe the votes may be found on page 2.

This report is arranged by general subject areas as follows: each vote begins with the roll call number in parentheses, followed by the number of the bill or resolution being considered and short description of the question on which the vote was taken, including amendments, motions and passage. Next my own vote on the measure is listed by either a "yes" or "no." The vote of the entire House is next indicated by either "passed" or "failed" with the vote total, followed by the date on which the vote occurred. Votes taken under suspension of the rules are so indicated and an explanation of that procedure may be found in the glossary.

I hope you find this voting record information helpful. As the 103rd Congress continues its work, I encourage you to share your comments on this report and to let me know your views on the important and challenging issues facing our district and the nation and other matters of interest to you.

Sincerely,

Frank R Wolf

(146) H.R. 1578. Amendment as a substitute to require that a proposed presidential rescission take effect unless both chambers passed a motion of disapproval, which could be vetoed, ultimately forcing a two-thirds majority vote in both chambers in order to overturn a rescission. Yes. Failed 198-219. 4/29/93.

(147) H.R. 1578. Amendment as a substitute to allow the president to propose to rescind any part of an appropriations bill and require Congress to vote on that rescission proposal within a specified period of time; the bill would expire two years after enactment. No. Passed 247-168. 4/29/93.

(148) H.R. 1578. On demand for a separate vote in the House, substitute amendment to allow the president to propose to rescind any part of an appropriations bill and require Congress to vote on that rescission proposal within a specified period of time; the bill would expire two years after enactment. No. Passed 248-163. 4/29/93. [Note: the amendment was earlier adopted in the Committee of the Whole, roll call 147.]

(149) H.R. 1578. Motion to recommit the bill to the Rules Committee with instructions to report it back with an amendment to require that procedures could be changed only by statute or a three-fifths vote and to prohibit a rescission proposal from being considered under a special rule or suspension of the rules. Yes. Failed 182-233. 4/29/93.

(150) H.R. 1578. On passage of the bill to allow the president to propose to rescind any part of an appropriations bill and force Congress to vote on that rescission proposal within a specified period; the bill would expire two years after enactment. No. Passed 258-157. 4/29/93.

(196) H.Res. 186. To adopt the rule to consider H.R. 2264, Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. No. Passed 236-194. 5/27/93.

(198) H.R. 2264, Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. Amendment as a substitute to cut $355 billion over five years from the budget deficit without tax increases by reducing discretionary spending by $226 billion and entitlement spending by $129 billion. Yes. Failed 138-295. 5/27/93.

(199) H.R. 2264. On passage of the bill which follows President Clinton's economic proposals by raising $250 billion in new taxes, mandating $87 billion in cuts in mandatory spending, and cutting an additional $159 billion from the deficit, largely through discretionary spending cuts and interest savings, for a total of $496 billion in deficit reduction over five years. The bill includes a new top income tax bracket of 36 percent with a 10 percent surtax on income of more than $250,000; a tax increase on the Social Security benefits of better-off recipients; an increase in the Medicare payroll tax; an energy (Btu) tax; an increase in the corporate income tax rate to 35 percent; an auction of the public radio spectrum; an expansion of the earned income tax credit, and a provision to freeze discretionary spending at or below FY 1993 levels through FY 1998 and create an entitlement review process and a deficit-reduction trust fund. No. Passed 219-213. 5/27/93.

(327) H.R. 2264, Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. Motion to order the previous question [thus ending debate and the possibility of amendment] on the motion to instruct the House conferees to accept the lower levels of new spending in the Senate bill and the Senate's higher income threshold for taxing Social Security benefits. Yes. Failed 184-238. 7/14/93.

(328) H.R. 2264. Substitute amendment to the motion to instruct House conferees to omit the provisions of the motion to direct conferees to accept the lower levels of new spending in the Senate bill. No. Passed 235-183. 7/14/93.

(329) H.R. 2264. Motion as amended to instruct House conferees to accept the Senate's higher income threshold of taxing Social Security benefits. Yes. Passed 415-0. 7/14/93.

(403) H.Res. 240, rule to consider the conference report to H.R. 2264, Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. No. Passed 253-179. 8/5/93.

(406) H.R. 2264, to adopt the conference report on the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 to reduce the deficit by an estimated $496 billion over five years through $241 billion in additional taxes and $255 billion in spending cuts by adopted President Clinton's economic proposals including: a new top income tax bracket of 36 percent with a 10 percent surtax above $250,000 retroactive to Jan. 1,

GLOSSARY OF TERMS USED IN VOTING RECORD REPORT

AMENDMENT—A proposal of a member of Congress to alter the language, provisions or stipulations in a bill or in another amendment. It is usually printed, debated and voted upon in the same way as a bill.

APPROPRIATIONS—Legislation which provides the actual funds approved by authorization bills, but not necessarily the full amount authorized. There are 13 regular appropriations bills which must be approved on an annual basis effective for the fiscal year which begins on Oct. 1 (also see Continuing Resolution).

AUTHORIZATION—Basic, substantive legislation that establishes or continues (reauthorizes) the legal operation of a federal program or agency, either indefinitely or for a specific period, or which sanctions a particular type of obligation or expenditure.

BILL—A legislative proposal, designated as H.R. in the House of Representatives and S. in the Senate, followed by a number assigned in the order in which it is introduced during the two-year period in which a Congress is convened. If approved by both houses of Congress in the same form and signed by the President, a bill becomes a law.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE—A procedural device designed to expedite the legislative work in the House in which slightly less formal rules for conduct of debate and voting on amendments apply.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—A resolution, designated as House Concurrent Resolution (H.Con.Res.) or Senate Concurrent Resolution (S.Con.Res.), often used to express the "sense of Congress" on various domestic or foreign policy issues. Concurrent resolutions do not require or are not intended for approval by the President and therefore do not have the force of law.

CONFERENCE—A meeting between the representatives of the House and Senate to reconcile differences between the two houses over provisions of a bill or joint resolution passed by both chambers. A majority of the members of the conference from each chamber must agree on the provisions of a measure before it can be considered by either chamber in the form of a "conference report." Conference reports cannot be amended and if not approved, the legislation may go back to conference or a new conference must be convened. Legislation passed by both houses with only minor differences need not be sent to conference; either chamber may concur in the other's amendments, completing action on the legislation.

CONTINUING RESOLUTION—A joint resolution which continues in effect appropriations legislation for specific ongoing activities of federal departments or agencies when a fiscal year begins and Congress has not yet enacted all of the 13 regular appropriations bills for that fiscal year.

DEMAND FOR A SEPARATE VOTE—A procedure which a member can use to demand that a separate vote on any amendment passed in the Committee of the Whole be voted upon again when the Committee reports a bill or resolution back to the full House for action. During the 1st Session of the 103rd Congress, House rules were changed to allow the resident commissioner of Puerto Rico and the delegates from American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, and the Virgin Islands to vote in and preside over the Committee of the Whole. Those five members, however, are not allowed to vote in the House. The demand for a separate vote was used more frequently during the 1st Session of the 103rd Congress because of that rules change.

HOUSE—The House of Representatives, as distinct from the Senate, although each body is a "house" of Congress.

JOINT RESOLUTION—A resolution, designated House Joint Resolution (H.J.Res.) or Senate Joint Resolution (S.J.Res.), followed by a number assigned in the order in which it is introduced during the two-year period in which a Congress is convened. If approved by both houses in the same form and signed by the President, it becomes a law just as a bill does. A joint resolution is generally limited to special circumstances and is also used to propose amendments to the Constitution. Under that purpose, it does not require a presidential signature and becomes part of the Constitution when three-fourths of the states ratify or approve it.

PREVIOUS QUESTION—A request for the previous question, or a motion to order the previous question in the House brings to a vote the question of whether debate and the possibility of amending the question should end and the merits of the pending issue should be voted upon. For example, the previous question is voted upon during consideration of a rule, which sets the time limits for debate and whether or which amendments are allowed to be considered on a bill. If a member wanted an additional amendment to be considered which was not made in order by the rule, he or she could work to defeat the previous question and if successful, the rule could be amended to include the member's request. If the motion to order the previous question is approved, debate on the issue and the possibility of amendment end.

RESOLUTION—A simple resolution, designated House Resolution (H.Res.) or Senate Resolution (S.Res.), deals with matters entirely within the prerogatives of one house or the other. It requires neither passage by the other chamber nor approval by the President, does not have the force of law and is commonly used for internal business of one house or for expressing views of a chamber.

RULE—A resolution from the House Rules Committee which, if adopted by the House, sets the procedures and time limits for debate and voting on a pending bill or resolution. A rule can be open, which would allow any member to offer an amendment to the pending legislation, modified, which would allow only certain amendments approved by the Rules Committee to be offered; or closed, which would not allow any amendments to be offered.

SUSPENSION OF RULES—A procedure used in the House intended to speed the consideration of non-controversial legislation. Under suspension of the rules, debate is limited to 40 minutes, no amendments from the floor are permitted, and a two-thirds vote of those members voting is required for passage
