MAURITIUS ADHERES TO THE UNIVERSAL COPYRIGHT CONVENTION

The Copyright Office has just been informed that the Director-General of Unesco received on August 20, 1970 from the Government of Mauritius a communication notifying that it considers itself bound, as from March 12, 1968, by the Universal Copyright Convention and annexed Protocols 1, 2 and 3, the application of which had been extended to its territory by the United Kingdom between January 6, 1965 and the attainment of independence.

The Universal Copyright Convention (the UCC), which came into force on September 16, 1955, is a multilateral international treaty to which the United States is a party. A list of participating countries and other information on United States and international copyright may be obtained from the Copyright Office, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. 20540.

Mauritius is the 59th country to become a party to the Universal Copyright Convention.
