EXCHANGE OF PUBLICATIONS

Exchange of notes at Washington June 15 and 24, 1940

Entered into force June 24, 1940

*Amended by agreement of May 16 and 23, 1950*¹

54 Stat. 2329; Executive Agreement Series 176

The Secretary of State to the Brazilian Ambassador

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON, June 15, 1940

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the Department's note of April 20, 1940 and previous correspondence regarding the exchange of official publications.

It gives me pleasure to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the United States of America will be glad to undertake a complete exchange of official publications with the Government of the United States of Brazil to be conducted in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the United States of America is the Smithsonian Institution. The Official exchange office on the part of the United States of Brazil is the Instituto Nacional do Livro.

2. The publications exchanged shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress; on behalf of the United States of Brazil by the Instituto Nacional do Livro.

3. The Government of the United States of America shall furnish regularly in one copy a full set of the official publications of its several branches, departments, bureaus, offices, and institutions. A list of such instrumentalities with an indication of their principal serial publications to be included in the exchange is attached (List No. 1). This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiation, any new instrumentalities that the Government may create in the future.

4. The Government of the United States of Brazil shall furnish regularly in one copy a full set of the official publications of its several branches, departments, bureaus, offices, and institutions. A list of such instrumentalities with an indication of their principal serial publications to be included in the exchange is attached (List No. 2). This list shall be extended to include, without the necessity of subsequent negotiations, any new instrumentalities that the Government may create in the future.

5. With respect to instrumentalities which at this time do not issue publications and which are not mentioned in the attached lists, it is understood that publications which they may issue in the future shall be furnished in one copy.

6. Neither Government shall be obligated by this agreement to furnish confidential publications, black forms, or circular letters not of a public nature.

7. Each party to the agreement shall bear the postal, railroad, steamship, and other charges arising in its own country.

8. Both parties express their willingness as far as possible to expedite shipments.

9. This agreement shall not be understood to modify the already existing exchange agreements between the various Government departments and instrumentalities of the two countries.

Upon the receipt of a note from Your Excellency indicating that the Government of the United States of Brazil is prepared to undertake a complete exchange of official publications with the Government of the United States of America in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the agreement shall be considered to be concluded and in effect as of the date of such note from Your Excellency.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

CORDELL HULL

EMBASSY OF THE
UNITED STATES OF BRAZIL

WASHINGTON, June 24, 1940

No. 109/471. (42) (22)

MR. SECRETARY OF STATE:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's note of June 15 instant relative to the exchange of official publications between Brazil and the United States of America.

2. Your Excellency advises that the American Government agrees to the said exchange subject to the provisions established by the text of the convention included in Your Excellency's note, it being necessary in order that this convention may enter into force merely for the Brazilian Government, through me, to indicate that it likewise agrees to this exchange.

3. In reply, I inform Your Excellency, exercising the full powers conferred on me, that the Government of the United States of Brazil agrees to the exchange in question, subject to the provisions of the convention included by Your Excellency in the above-mentioned note.

I take the occasion to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

CARLOS MARTINS PEREIRA E SOUSA
