GREECE

EXCHANGE OF PUBLICATIONS

Agreement effected by exchange of notes signed at Athens September 26 and October 24, 1950; entered into force October 24, 1950.

TIAS 2193
Sept. 26 and
Oct. 24, 1950

The American Ambassador to the Greek Minister of Foreign Affairs

AMERICAN EMBASSY

Athens, Greece, September 26, 1950

No. 95

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to the conversations which have taken place between representatives of the Government of the United States of America and representatives of the Government of Greece in regard to the exchange of official publications, and to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the United States of America agrees that there shall be an exchange of official publications between the two Governments in accordance with the following provisions:

1. Each of the two Governments shall furnish regularly a copy of each of its official publications which is indicated in a selected list prepared by the other Government and communicated through diplomatic channels subsequent to the conclusion of the present agreement. The list of publications selected by each Government may be revised from time to time and may be extended, without the necessity of subsequent negotiations, to include any other official publication of the other Government not specified in the list, or publications of new offices which the other Government may establish in the future.

2. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of the United States of America shall be the Smithsonian Institution. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of Greece shall be the Greek Office for Exchange of Publications.

3. The publications shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress and on behalf of Greece by the Greek Office for Exchange of Publications.

4. The present agreement does not obligate either of the two Governments to furnish blank forms, circulars which are not of a public character, or confidential publications.

5. Each of the two Governments shall bear all charges, including postal, rail and shipping costs, arising under the present agreement in connection with the transportation within its own country of the publications of both Governments and the shipment of its own publications to a port or other appropriate place reasonably convenient to the exchange office of the other Government.

6. The present agreement shall not be considered as a modification of any existing exchange agreement between a department or agency of one of the Governments and a department or agency of the other Government.

Upon receipt of a note from Your Excellency indicating that the foregoing provisions are acceptable to the Government of Greece, the Government of the United States of America will consider that this note and your reply constitute an agreement between the two Governments on this subject, the agreement to enter into force on the date of your note in reply.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

JOHN E. PEURIFOY

His Excellency,
SOPHOCLES VENIZELOS,
Minister of Foreign Affairs,
Athens.

ATHENS, October 24, 1950.

MONSIEUR L'AMBASSADEUR,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of the letter No 95 dated September 26th, 1950, by which Your Excellency kindly informed me of the provisions under which the Government of the United States of America agrees that there shall be an exchange of official publications between them and the Royal Hellenic Government, as follows:

I. Each of the two Governments shall furnish regularly a copy of each of its official publications which is indicated in a selected list prepared by the other Government and communicated through diplomatic channels subsequent to the conclusion of the present agreement. The list of publications selected by each Government may be revised from time to time and may be extended, without the necessity of subsequent negotiations, to include any other official publication of the other Government not specified in the list, or publications of new offices which the other Government may establish in the future.

2. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of the United States of America shall be the Smithsonian Institution. The official exchange office for the transmission of publications of the Government of Greece shall be the Greek Office for Exchange of Publications.

3. The publications shall be received on behalf of the United States of America by the Library of Congress and on behalf of Greece by the Greek Office for Exchange of Publications.

4. The present agreement does not obligate either of the two Governments to furnish blank forms, circulars which are not of a public character, or confidential publications.

5. Each of the two Governments shall bear all charges, including postal, rail and shipping costs, arising under the present agreement in connection with the transportation within its own country of the publications of both Governments and the shipment of its own publications to a port or other appropriate place reasonably convenient to the exchange office of the other Government.

6. The present agreement shall not be considered as a modification of any existing exchange agreement a department or agency of one of the Governments and a department or agency of the other Government.

In reply I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that the foregoing provisions are acceptable to the Royal Hellenic Government.

Please accept, Monsieur l'Ambassadeur, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

S VENIZELOS

His Excellency,

JOHN E. PEURIFOY,

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America.
