

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT MA2007-1

—Online Course—

U.S. Copyright Issues Online

Photo: Carol Highsmith

Need to learn more about U.S. copyright law but never seem to have time to attend a course? This online course will cover the following:

- History of U.S. Copyright
- Copyright protection and protected works
- Copyright registration and ownership
- Rights protection and limitations
- Rights exploitation and violations
- Remedies for violations
- Use of copyright materials
- Digital copyright law

How does this online course work? Twice a week, beginning Monday, September 18, 2006, you will receive e-lessons for five weeks and a self-marking quiz. During the course, participants will also be part of an exclusive listserv where participants can discuss course contents and ask questions.

Lesley Ellen Harris, author of several books on copyright including Digital Licensing: A Practical Guide for Librarians, is the developer and proctor for this course. She has also developed email tutorials on digital licensing for the American Library Association and an international version on Canadian copyright law. For more information on Harris, visit her Web site at <http://www.copyrightlaws.com>.
