Designed for both the newer and the seasoned library technician, this week-long institute will provide a broad overview of federal library work. The program will open with a dynamic keynote presentation on professionalism and the federal library technician and will continue with presentations by noted experts and by federal library staff members. The week will also include subject-oriented tours of selected areas of the Library of Congress.

About the Keynote Speaker

Sibyl E. Moses is a reference specialist in African American History and Culture in the Humanities and Social Sciences Division of the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. She is also the author of the widely acclaimed reference book, African American Women Writers in New Jersey. Moses is a graduate of Spelman College in Atlanta, Georgia and earned a master's degree in Library and Information Science and Ph.D. at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. She was an Assistant Professor and later, Associate Professor, in the Graduate School of Library and Information Science, The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.

She was also director of the Office of Library Outreach Services at The American Library Association, Chicago, Illinois, and was the project archivist for the Phelps Stokes Fund Records in the Rare Books, Manuscripts, and Archives Section of The New York Public Library's Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture.
