Learn about the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS), Library of Congress, and how technology has changed the reading experience for users. Representatives from NLS will present an overview of this national program to include:

- ☞ Digital talking-book machines and digital talking books on flash cartridges
- ☞ Braille and Audio Reading Download (BARD) and Web-Braille Internet services
- ☞ The selection process for materials included in the NLS collection
- ☞ The transformation of these materials into audio and braille books and magazines
- ☞ Eligibility for the free library service
