Smart Search Skills for Federal Information Resource Databases

This presentation-style training will cover searching EPA resource and the legislative process using congressional documents and THOMAS. The training will be taught by expert searchers who work in corresponding subject area libraries. The training is open to federal librarians and federal contract staff only.

Attendees will need to check in with security at the reception desk for the U.S. EPA Region 6 Office located on the 7th floor. Please bring a valid government photo ID.

We recommend checking in with security on the seventh floor at least ½ hour prior to the training session.
