What to Wear

There is no official dress code for the swearing-in ceremonies.

It is typically cold on Inauguration Day — normally 37°F — and often wet. Expect to be outside for more than three hours, to stand in line, and to walk for long periods of time. Wear a winter coat; consider wearing comfortable shoes, gloves, a hat and a scarf, and bringing a blanket. Extra consideration should be taken when planning to bring infants, young children, the elderly, or anyone with a weakened immune system.

Attendees should check the local weather forecast for Inauguration Day and plan accordingly. In the event of rain, umbrellas will not be permitted within the security perimeter. It is recommended that attendees bring ponchos, or rain coats.

Children

There are no child care facilities provided to attendees. Due to increased security and space constraints strollers are not permitted on the Capitol grounds. Direct questions regarding the admittance of items required for child care to the U.S. Capitol Police at 202-228-3555.

Elderly

The Swearing-In ceremony is an outdoor event held on the West Front lawn of the U.S. Capitol. Inauguration day is typically cold — normally 37° F at noon — and occasionally wet. Extra consideration should be taken when planning to bring infants, young children, the elderly, or anyone with a weakened immune system.

Medical Conditions

Emergency Medical Teams are on hand in the event of any medical emergencies. For additional information about permitted items for medical purposes (i.e. insulin), please contact the U.S. Capitol Police at 202-228-3555.

Restrooms

Outdoor, portable restrooms are located throughout the Capitol grounds.

Food and Drink

Food, beverages, and other amenities are not available within the ceremony perimeter. Do not bring any food item larger than a small snack. Thermoses are prohibited items.

Cell Phones

Cellular Phones are permitted on the Capitol Grounds. Turn off phones or set to vibrate before the program begins.

Cameras

Cameras are permitted on the Capitol Grounds, however, tripods and camera bags are prohibited items.
