Custodial History

In 1997, the Library of Congress was contacted by Edward Joffe, a musician and teacher at the New Jersey City University. Joffe had played in the orchestra for the last show that Billy Byers had orchestrated, Victor/Victoria, and the two had become friends in the last two years of Byers' life. Joffe acquired several of Byers' arrangements for Count Basie and Frank Sinatra when Byers had visited him, along with their mutual friend Bill Caiza. Caiza mentioned that he had acquired these scores when working for Byers' primary copyist, Emile Charlap, and offered them back to Byers; instead, Byers suggested that he give them to Joffe. Eventually, Joffe felt that the scores should have a more permanent home where they would be available to generations of musicians and scholars; an inquiry at the Rodgers & Hammerstein Organization led to the suggestion that the Music Division of the Library of Congress would be an ideal place to house the collection. Joffe gave the scores to the Library, and assisted the Library in contacting Byers' widow, Yuriko Byers, in the hopes that she would have additional scores that she might be willing to give to the Library as well.

Ms. Byers had several cartons of additional scores by her husband and was delighted to give them to the Library, also in 1997, to form the largest component of the Billy Byers Collection.

Biographical Note

The following chronology is not complete, but rather represents highlights from Byers' career—particularly items where agreement on dates and titles came from multiple sources. Most of Byers' work as a musician is not included here, most notably the dozens of recordings on which he played the trombone. Distinctions between the term arranger and orchestrator are not always used consistently in various sources, so those differing designations here should not be taken as definitive.

Scope and Content Note

This collection represents neither all nor most of Byers' work as a composer, arranger and orchestrator, but provides a sampling of the diverse styles, musical forces, variety of performers and situations that he worked for and with. The scores here range from works for recordings, live performances, television shows, and film scores; for groups that range from small combos to big bands to orchestras of symphonic proportions; and for an eclectic array of singers, from pop to jazz to rock to rhythm and blues to disco; and even dancers. Missing here are any of Byers' arrangements and orchestrations for Broadway musicals. It is hoped that someday this gap, too, will be filled by other collections in the Library.

Unless otherwise noted, all items in the Billy Byers Collection are full scores in Byers' hand, and most of these are in ink on transparencies.

The collection came to the Library with most of the scores in envelopes marked in alphabetical order, usually marked with the name of a performer, but occasionally marked with the name of a project or a song title. We have retained that organization as closely as possible. In some cases, this arrangement results in scores for the same project ending up in different places. For instance, there were several envelopes marked "Steve and Eydie" which contained, among other things, scores for the television special Steve and Eydie Celebrate Irving Berlin. There were also scores for the same show in envelopes for the performers Carol Burnett and Sammy Davis Jr. Rather than put these scores together, we have kept them in the original order, but have included cross-references to help researchers find related materials. There are a few scores that may well have been inadvertently placed in the wrong envelopes before coming to the Library; for example, "Intro to 3 girls revised" which was included with the Ann-Margret materials. Unless there was additional evidence which convinced us that this was a mistake (such as an entry for this item appearing in another designation in the notebook inventorying the collection), we left it where it was found, but added a cross-reference—in this case to Three Girls Three.

In addition to song/work titles, other relevant information that appears on title pages is included in our listing following the colon. This information is often a date, a show title, the name of a record label, or some other piece of information that might help the researcher better identify the piece. Several of the scores include the designation “vaudeville.” We inquired of several people who had worked with Byers about the use of this term. The best guess was provided by the conductor Ian Fraser, who thought it indicated that fees for the arrangement had been calculated according to the scale charged for a live performance (original use); if the arrangement subsequently was used on a recording or as part of a television performance, an additional fee might be charged.

Because most of the collection is organized by the name of a performer, we have added a song index at the back of the finding aid. This index also includes songs we were able to identify among the many medleys (we were not able to identify all of them). It does not include the individual cue titles found in the film scores; instead, the major work titles for those films are indexed by “Miscellaneous cues.”

Song/Work Title

Hucklebuck
Hurricane Sadie
Hustle my bustle
I am singing
I begged her
I believe in music
I can do a trick
I can do that
I can hear the music
I can see clearly
I can't believe that you're in love with me
I can't give you anything but love
I can't remember ever loving you
I can't stop lovin' you
I can't stop loving you
I can't take it
I can't take my eyes off of you
I didn't know what time it was
I do what I please
I don't know why, I just do
I don't wanna go
I fall in love too easily
I go to Rio
I got it bad
I got it bad and that ain't good
I got lost in his arms
I got plenty of nothin'
I got rhythm
I got rhythm
I got the sun in the morning
I gotta right to sing the blues
I had a ball
I hadn't anyone 'till you
I happen to like New York
I haven't got anything better to do
I honestly love you
I just make believe you love me
I left my heart in San Francisco off
I let a song go out of my heart
I love a piano
I love a piano
I love how you love me
I love you
I miss you so
I poured my heart into a song
I remember you
I still believe in love
I think I like you
I wanna be a dancin' man

I wanna listen to rag
 I wanna make the world laugh
 I want to be happy
 I want to be happy
 I want to go back to Michigan
 I wish you love
 I won't dance
 I won't last a day without you
 I won't last a day without you
 I write the songs
 I'll be seeing you
 I'll be your baby tonight
 I'll begin again
 I'll get by
 I'll get by
 I'll never fall in love again
 I'll never miss her till I think of her
 I'll never smile again
 I'll never smile again
 I'll never smile again
 I'll never smile again
 I'll remember you
 I'll say a prayer for you
 I'm a little bit country
 I'm a tree
 I'm a Yankee-doodle dandy
 I'm always chasing rainbows
 I'm always chasing rainbows
 I'm an old cowhand
 I'm comin' home again
 I'm coming home again
 I'm flying
 I'm gonna sit right down and write....
 I'm just wild about Harry
 I'm looking over a four leaf clover
 I'm not afraid
 I'm saved
 I'm so very happy
 I've got a crush on you
 I've got a crush on you
 I've got a lovely bunch of cocoanuts
 I've got a lovely bunch of cocoanuts
 I've got my love to keep me warm
 I've got to be me
 I've got you under my skin
 I've got your number
 I've gotta be me
 I've grown accustomed to her face bows
 I've told every little star

 It ain't necessarily so
 It could happen to you
 It don't mean a thing
 It don't mean a thing if it ain't got....
 It don't mean a thing if it ain't got that....
 It might as well be spring on/off
 It never entered my mind
 It was a good time
 It's a lovely day today
 It's a man's world
 It's a miracle
 It's a musical world
 It's all right with me
 It's easy to remember
 It's just a matter of time
 It's not where you start
 It's one of those songs
 It's only a paper moon
 It's the same old shillelagh
 It's wild

 What a difference a day made
 What a fool believes
 What about today
 What are you doing the rest of your life
 What did I have
 What did I have that I don't have?
 What I did for love
 What I did for love
 What makes a dance feel so good
 What the world needs now
 What'll I do?
 What's the use of breaking
 Whatever Lola wants
 When I fall in love
 When I look in your eyes
 When I lost you

You and I
 You are so beautiful to me
 You are the sunshine of my life
 You can have him
 You could drive a person crazy
 You don't know what love is
 You keep coming back like a song
 You make me feel so young
 You never done it like that
 You stepped out of a dream
 You'd be surprised
 You'll never know
 You'll never walk alone
 You're a grand old flag
 You're blase
 You're gonna hear from me
 You're just in love
